NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

A CIGARETTE dealer in Brooklyn has been fined $50 under the new law forbidding sales to children. So the law is not a dead letter after all.

Gov. Briggs is authority for the news that the Delaware peach crop is to be larger this year than in 1887, when it reached 1,000,000 baskets.

THE pay of a Haytian soldier is 7 cents a day and he buys his own rations. This information will interest all uneasy Americans who contemplate a filibustering trip to the perturbed republic.

ANOTHER murderer has been acquitted in Charleston. Seven members of the McDow jury sat in the case. That jury, like the Chicago association for the execution of criminals, should get a charter and advertise for jobs.

JOHN MAGINNIS was struck by lightning yesterday and killed, while swimming in his bath house at Ocean Springs near New Orleans. Mr. Maginnis was the bridegroom at the famous wedding in Wm. M. Tweed's mansion at New York several years ago. His wife, who was Tweed's daughter, survives him.

Hon. "SUNSET" Cox delivered his political address at Huron, Dak., yesterday, and was received with great enthusiasm. The Dakotans have not forgotten that Mr. Cox was the only Democrat in Congress who stood up for the admission of the territory from the outset, and without any of the impracticable conditions proposed in the Springer bill.

THE raising of Kentucky hemp has been undertaken in the vicinity of Troy with marked success. Two stalks 8 feet 6 inches high have been grown on the farm of ex-Senator Bancus in Schaghticoke. The New York market, however, is likely to be dull until it is settled whether the Governor's law for killing gulls by electricity shall stand or we must go back to the halter.

Mrs. Smith, the Troy firebug, has been sentenced to sixteen years in the Albany penitentiary. By good behavior she can reduce the time to ten years. As the woman is fifty-two years old, she will have to behave exceedingly well if she ever steps upon free soil again. Judge a rascal, who made himself famous in Ulster county in the case of Daniel D. Bell, pronounced the sentence.

BETTING on Sullivan since he arrived in New Orleans yesterday has been slow and only at even money. There were plenty of offers to back Kilrain at 80 to 100, but no takers. This encourages the hope that Kilrain will finish off the big Boston beast in a style that would leave nothing more to be desired. Kilrain knows what he has to do to earn the lasting gratitude of the American people, a pension for life and a monument.

AND now it is reported that Mayor Grant has been "sassing" Gov. Hill in a letter, because the Governor connived at the defeat of some legislation that the Mayor wanted. It is not quite a year since Mayor Hewitt wrote the famous letter to the Governor, the requirements of which the latter said he would gladly comply with if he would recall some of the offensive terms. If the Governor has fallen from the grace of Tammany, what can be his next drop? It is difficult to imagine a lower depth.

THERE is growing indignation in Charleston over McDow's acquittal, and some of Dawson's friends talk loudly of lynching. They would have been wiser if they had arranged him for manslaughter and employed able counsel. In their wrath they tried him for murder and aimed at an impossible verdict. They will be justified in driving him out of the city. But there was no evidence to convict him of murder except his own testimony, and in that he claimed to have acted in self defense.

PRESIDENT HARRISON advised the celebration of the Fourth in the old-fashioned way in his speech at Woodstock yesterday. And he can be said in support of his argument, that the more modern way, as practiced in this city, is not an improvement. It would be a good plan to begin now the groundwork for a grand old-fashioned celebration in Kingston next year, especially as there will be no politics to take care of then, and every one can give free vent to his patriotism. Besides it does not rain on every Fourth of July.

THE President minister at Washington has resigned his office and prepared to return home. The newspapers have got off so many gibes at the gentleman that he feels forced to take this step. He leaves behind him the comfortable information that if any Persian editor should publish such stuff about the American ambassador as the Washington press has published about him, the Shah would order his head off as quickly as the law of gravitation could cause it to drop. The ambassador's name is Hadji Hassen Ghooli Khan.

ON Wednesday a poorly dressed Italian workman threw himself before a locomotive in a deep cut in upper New-York and was killed in an instant. Yesterday in Newark Emile Broun, a well dressed Frenchman who had been showing symptoms of insanity, stepped before a flying train and faced it as it rushed upon him. His death was also instantaneous, a part of his head being carried away. If Gov. Hill's lightning current fails to kill murderers, these two events may suggest to him the expediency of trying the lightning train.

WE think ex-President Cleveland is one of the "get-there" kind. Yesterday "an accident to Mr. Cleveland" was telegraphed all over the country. To-day the terrible affair is explained. Yesterday morning, while the ex-President was being driven by two young men named Jefferson to a fishing spot at Buzzard's Bay, the horse was seized with the blind staggers and the three gentlemen alighted from the carriage. The horse then broke from the driver and ran away, while Mr. Cleveland proceeded to another pond and caught 250 fish. Two years ago Mr. Cleveland went fishing on Decoration Day, but got home in time to frame a few pension votes. Our ex-President's example is not much of an inspiration to patriots.

CRASHES ON THE RAIL.

Several Persons Were Killed In Iowa Last Night.

A BANK TELLER A THIEF.
This Time it is a Hoboken Man Who Goes Wrong.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS.

TWO BAD RAILROAD CRASHES IN IOWA.

An Excursion Train Collides With a Freight Train Several Persons Killed.

Dubuque, Ia., July 5.—A wreck occurred last night on the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas Railroad two miles north of this City. Grand Army Republic men had been holding a picnic at Twin Springs, 13 miles from Dubuque. Over 5,000 people were in attendance. Trains were run every hour and to and from the grounds. A train had landed 1,200 people in this City and was returning for the remainder, about 2,000 men, women and children, when it collided with a freight train near this City. It is known that a brakeman was killed and three others injured. There were a large number of people on the excursion train who were going up to pass a few hours at the resort, intending to return on the late train. It is believed many people were killed. Had the accident occurred to the south-bound excursion train the loss of life would have been fearful. No satisfactory reason for the accident has been assigned.

OTTUMWA, Ia., July 5.—A collision occurred on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad near Glendale yesterday. An east-bound stock train with two engines collided with a passenger train west-bound. Express Messenger Blackburn was buried in the wreck and probably fatally injured. A few others were slightly hurt. Three engines were badly damaged. Considerable stock was killed and injured.

A DISASTER IN VIRGINIA.
By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BALTIMORE, July 5.—A News Onancock, Va., special says: "Information has been received here that an express train on the New-Croft, Philadelphia & Norfolk Road was derailed last night. Traffic north of Eastville was stopped."

TO-DAYS TIDINGS OF IRON HIGHWAYS.
What Railroad Companies Have Done or Intend to Do in Near Future.

The Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company is planning a new passenger route to the West, which will bring it into more active rivalry with the Pennsylvania Railroad. By the new arrangement the Reading Road, instead of transferring passengers between New York and Philadelphia, will take them Ohio Railroad in Philadelphia, will take them to Harrisburg, across the Susquehanna River to the terminus of the Harrisburg & Potomac Railroad; thence over the Western Maryland Railroad to a point of connection with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at near Cumberland. From there westward the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad will be used.

The United States Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce, which has under investigation the relation of Canadian railways to Interstate Commerce laws and the United States railways, began its sessions at the office of the State Railway Commissioner in Boston to-day.

All the western railroads will doubtless meet in grain rates to the seaboard made by the Baltimore & Ohio. The "Big Four" road has made a rate two cents below that of the Baltimore & Ohio.

The Northern Pacific Railroad will pay a dividend this year of probably 3 per cent, on the preferred stock. It was officially stated yesterday that the Company will issue $15,000,000 in new bonds.

Creditors of the Reading Iron Works hope to realize between 35 and 40 per cent, on their claims from personal property. The plant, which is valued at from $300,000 to $500,000.

New Incorporations in this State.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 5.—The following certificates of incorporation were filed in the Secretary of State's office to-day. The Dramatic Pleasure Club, No. 1, of New York City. It is formed to further the knowledge of its members in the dramatic art and bring them together socially. Isadore Lubek, Rosa Arlischinsky, Minnie Obendorfer, Mary Schuur and William Schwartz are named as Trustees for the first year.

The Prospect Lawn and Improvement Company is formed by George Edgett, David E. Taylor, J. Bruce Martin, James A. Townsend, George Edgett and Wallace Davney, with a capital of $25,000. They propose to pursue a business of purchasing, selling, maintaining and improving real estate for residences and apartment houses. The operations of the company will include the whole State with principal office in New-York.

The Jefferson Permanent Savings and Loan Association of Buffalo have filed a certificate of change of name to "The Jefferson Permanent Dime Savings and Loan Association."

Concerning Two Bruties.

New Orleans, July 5.—The chief of conversation among a certain class of people in this City at present is the forthcoming prize fight between Sullivan and Kilrain. Sullivan is here and Kilrain left Cincinnati this morning for his rendezvous. If the fight would be a "fake" it has been hinted it will be the people of this section of the country who will attend, they will get it too. A former trainer of "Paddy" Ryan stated to an associate Press reporter to-day that Sullivan falls to accompany and lose his nerve. Captain H. Behnke, Commander of the Louisiana Artillery, has received orders to call out his company to prevent the fight.

Wheat in Minnesota and Dakota.
By Telegraph to The Freeman.

St. Paul, July 5.—According to reports received by the Northern Pacific and St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroads the wheat crop in Minnesota and North Dakota, although not as encouraging as early indications led farmers to hope for, has been considerably improved by good rains within the last three or four days. It will hardly be an average crop, but is by no means a failure in any district.

A Suicide at Kansas City.
By Telegraph to The Freeman.

KANSAS CITY, July 5.—The dead body of Francis D. Cammann, President of the Kansas City Curbings Works, was found in an alley yesterday. There was a bullet hole in his right temple and a revolver in his hand. Cammann recently sold some mortgaged City contracts without releasing the mortgages. He was mixed up in several crooked affairs.

A Bank Teller an Embezzler.
By Telegraph to The Freeman.

HOBOKEN, N. J., July 5.—Frank Hoyt, Paying Teller of the First National Bank, was arrested today on the charge of embezzling $15,000. Hoyt has been connected with the bank for 15 years and bore an unblemished character. He is 38 years old and has a wife and family.

Another Arrest in Cronin Case.
By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The police have made another arrest in the Cronin case.

WINNEPEG, July 5.—The Burke case will be concluded to-night or to-morrow. Extradition is considered certain.

GENERAL SPORTING MATTERS NOTED.

On the Diamond, the Race Track and the Courses of Yachtsmen.

The regatta of the Canadian Association of Amateur oarsmen will take place at Hamilton Beach on August 30. It will be open to members of all Canadian rowing clubs affiliated with the Association and to all clubs in the United States recognized by the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen. Entries must be made not later than August 10.

Twenty-three yachts have already entered for the annual race of the New Rochelle Club, to be sailed to-morrow. Among them are the new 30-footer Guide, the Amazon, Florida, Moya, Maids, Roamer, Eurybia, Phantom, Empress, Wacoah, Walrus, the Canabos, Viken, Curlew, and Elephant. The cutters Nanita and Madge and the center-board yawl Tadpole of the Knickerbocker Yacht Club are getting ready for a race out-side Long Island. They start in a few days from New York, and sail to the eastward, and finish at Port Pond Bay, just inside Montauk. The Nanita and Madge are each 23 feet long, and the Tadpole is 30 feet.

At Kempton Park, England, to-day, the race for the Victoria Cup was won by Robert Carter, a New York jockey, who rode the 3-year-old colt, Muckewie's The Kelpie. Time, 1:50. The race for the Kempton Park Grand Two-year-old Stakes was won by Glimstick's Signorina; Houndsworth's Alloway, second; Rothchild's was third.

The proposed race between W. P. Vreeland's yacht Lida and the Lender, owned by Otto Kroeve of the Pavana Yacht Club, is off. Mr. Vreeland has renewed his offer to race the Lender at any time for $500 or $1,000 a side.

The Virginia State regatta that was to have taken place at Richmond yesterday has been postponed until July 16 owing to high water. Crews are expected to be present at that time from Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

The fourth and final heat of the race for the Diamond regatta was rowed to-day at the Henley, England, regatta. Nickalls easily defeated C. G. Psotta, the American amateur champion. Nickalls won the regatta yesterday.

The Larchmont and Sing Sing yacht clubs carried out their regatta successfully yesterday in spite of many difficulties.

The Valkyrie suffered defeat in an English regatta yesterday.

The clubs of the National League and American Association played two games yesterday, both in New York.

Herr Hasenclever, formerly a leading Socialist member of the Reichstag, is dead.

Relieving Sufferers at Johnstown.
By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW YORK, July 5.—Governor Beaver of Pennsylvania has issued a commission to Mayor Grant stating that they had expended nearly $1,000,000 for the relief of Johnstown sufferers in food, clothing, shelter and furniture. No distribution of money had yet been made. Everything which was being done to give prompt and intelligent relief.

ALBANY, July 5.—Superintendent of Public Works Shanahan has a check for $1,345 which he will forward to the Treasurer of the city for the relief of the Johnstown sufferers. This money was contributed by the employees along the lines of the Canal in response to a circular letter to Division Superintendents from Mr. Shanahan asking for voluntary contributions.

A Soldier Mangled by a Train.
By Telegraph to The Freeman.

OSWEGO, July 5.—Sergeant Daniel O'Brien, of Captain Sanderson's company, Eleventh Infantry, stationed at Fort Ontario, was struck by a train on the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad near the fort gate this morning, and so badly mangled that there is no chance of his recovery.

PLANS OF IRISHMEN.

An "Irish-American Republican Association" Formed.

THE PRESIDENTS OUTING.
He Enjoys Himself in New-England This Day.

THE MORTUARY RECORD.

AN "IRISH-AMERICAN REPUBLIC."

Irishmen Arrange a "Nice" Sort of a Plan Out in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 5.—A number of prominent Irish-Americans held a meeting here yesterday afternoon to discuss the feasibility of organizing an "Irish-American Republic" to advance the interests of Ireland and the Irish race. It was decided to adopt a plan of action formulated by William T. Griffin. An organization was perfected to be known as the "Irish-American Republican Association." Officers were elected. It is the intention of the projectors to organize a land syndicate composed of influential and wealthy Irishmen and to send representatives to Canada, Chili, Peru and Mexico. The syndicate, it is understood, is willing to dispose of Lower California or a neighboring state under certain conditions with the privilege of establishing an Irish-American Republic. The money to be spent on improvements, etc., will be secured by mortgage at a very low rate of interest and will be collected at a small yearly rate. The money will be utilized to build and equip a navy, or organize an army, develop the resources of the country and establish a republic.

One of the men interested in the movement said: "Should Canadian land be secured an effort will be made to colonize it with 1,000,000 Irish and Irish-American farmers. This number of Irishmen with the addition to the Irish already in Canada, with the assistance of the French Canadian element would, it is thought, be able to capture the Canadian Government and convert it into a powerful Franco-Irish Republic. The only opposition likely to occur to the formation of a new Irish Republic is the opposition of the British Government. This opposition, however, will be suppressed by throwing the disaffected portions of the provinces into the American Union. When once in the jurisdiction of the United States the neutrality laws will keep the inhabitants in check. But should England dispute the authority of her Franco-Irish subjects to assume exclusive control of Canadian affairs, and declare war against them, the neutrality law would not prevent the enormous emigration of Irishmen from this country to Canada."

THE OUTING OF THE PRESIDENT.

A Tree Planted at Woodstock—A Cordial Greeting at Norwich, Etc.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW LONDON, Ct., July 5.—The weather at Woodstock was bright and pleasant this morning and the sun shone for the first time in three days. President Harrison arose shortly after 6 o'clock and filled in the time before breakfast by planting a tree in the garden before the Bowen residence which he presented to Mr. Bowen. The President, Governor Bulkeley, Justice Miller, Senator Hawley, Congressman Reed and other guests assisted at the planting. After breakfast the President was driven to Putnam, where a special train was in waiting to carry him to New-London. He was accompanied by Governor Bulkeley, Congressman Reed, Clarence W. Bowen, W. E. D. Stokes, and Lisperand Stewart. The train left Putnam at 8:05. President Harrison stood on the car platform and shook hands with 200 or 300 men and boys waiting for the train to start. Along the route to New-London crowds were gathered at the railroad stations and cheered as the train sped by. At Plainfield a stop was made and the President did more shaking. One prosaic citizen informed the President that his newly-born infant had been named Benjamin Harrison. At Norwich there was a very enthusiastic demonstration. Bands played patriotic airs and 2,000 people were packed on either side of the place where the train stopped. The President appeared on the back platform and in response to the manifestations of the crowd made a short speech. He was introduced by Mayor Cranford, of Norwich. The President thanked the people for their presence and cordial reception and said he was glad "that the devotion to our institutions and freedom that always characterized the people of Connecticut were being perpetuated." He added that he had no desire for a division, but it does my heart good to believe that in all that is really essential to our great Nation we are in sympathy and one in feeling for the President. The Mayor then introduced Secretary Tracy, Governor Bulkeley and Senator Hawley. The train reached New-London at 9:35. There was another demonstration at New-London and before leaving the train the President addressed a few words to the throng. Governor Ladd, of Rhode Island, and Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island, and other guests accompanied the party and went with it on the Despatch to Newport.

Newport, R. I., July 5.—The Despatch with the Presidential party on board arrived here at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon.

Violating Banking Laws.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, July 5.—Under Chapter 329 of the Laws of 1885—an amendment to the revised banking law—it is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $1,000 for any person or persons engaged in a banking business not subject to the supervision of the Superintendent of the Banking Department, to use any office sign at the place where such business is transacted which would indicate that such place or office is a bank. It also prohibits the using of any artificial or corporate name on stationery, for any use whatever, that in whole or in part, or in any manner, the name of a bank. Suit for violation of the above may be brought by the District Attorney of the County in which the offense is committed. In the town of Pike, Wyoming County, there is a company calling themselves the "Pike Banking Company." The Superintendent of the Banking Department having been informed of as to this being a violation of the law cited, states that however plain a violation it might appear to him the question is to be decided by the District Attorney of Wyoming County, and the matter has been called to his attention.

Decision in Favor of Bucket-Shops.
By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The Board of Trade received a hard rap this morning by the decision of Judges Horton, Tuley and Collins, sitting en banc, on the motion of the Board's attorney to dissolve the preliminary injunction to prevent the Board from withholding its quotations from the bucket-shops. The Judges deny the motion on the ground that the market quotations are of such importance to the public that they should be considered public property, and that if the injunction were dissolved the tendency would be to create a monopoly of the Board.

Movements of Ocean Steamers.

The steamer State of Nevada, from Glasgow, and Amerliam, from Amsterdam, have arrived in New-York City.

NEWS FROM POINTS FAR AND NEAR.

Simon Cameron's Will, Robbed by Masked Men—A Large Reservoir, Etc.

The will of the late General Simon Cameron is said to have been called by Senator J. D. Cameron, Wayne MacVeagh and Insurance Commissioner Foster his Executors. It is understood that the bulk of the estate goes to Senator Cameron, with comfortable bequests to his relatives. There are few, if any, public legacies. It is estimated that General Cameron was worth about $1,500,000. The will is not likely to be probated before Senator Cameron's return from Europe.

Many proprietors of barber shops in Germantown, Pa., have notified their customers that their places will be closed on Sundays hereafter, commencing with next Sunday. Any barber doing business on Sunday will be arrested under the law of 1794, but several say they do not intend to close.

Dr. L. T. Smith, of Pleasant Unity, Westmoreland County, Pa., was called by a woman on Monday night by three masked men, who demanded his money, knocked him down and left him for dead, overpowered other inmates of the house, stole nearly $500 and disappeared.

It is expected that the big Pennsylvania Railroad reservoir in course of construction in West-Whiteland township, Chester County, will be completed next week. Its cost is $15,000, and it will be the greatest watering station on the road between Philadelphia and Harrisburg.

At the celebration of the Fourth of July in Woodstock, addresses were made by President Harrison, Congressman Reed, Senator Hiseock, Secretaries Noble and Tracy, General Hawley and others.

People living near the Presbyterian Church at Salisbury, Pa., say the steeple rocks back and forth in a storm like a limb of a tree, and the trustees are urged to "throw out the bell."

Patrick Sarsfield Cassidy and Jeremiah O'Donovan Rossa yesterday called each other barons and knaves at the examination in the County's criminal libel suit in New-York City.

The Derivishes who were defeated at Aquin by Colonel Woodhouse's troops have fled to the hills. The gun-boats have cut off the Derivishes' water supply.

Ex-President Cleveland was thrown from a carriage while riding with the actor Jefferson, near Buzzard's Bay on Tuesday. He was not hurt, but the carriage was overturned.

Herman Probst yesterday murdered his mother in Jersey City and put two bullets in his own head, which will kill him. He was crazed by disease.

The State Board of Health held a special meeting in New-York City on Wednesday to adopt plans for sewerage systems.

Elwyn Latham, a Washington driver yesterday was drowned in the Potomac River after being capsized by the capsizing of a boat.

In Washington yesterday Joseph Shorter killed Edward Smith, by running a table fork into Smith's heart.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

A CIGARETTE dealer in Brooklyn has been fined $50 under the new law forbidding sales to children. So the law is not a dead letter after all.

Gov. Brooks is authority for the news that the Delaware peach crop is to be larger this year than in 1887, when it reached 1,000,000 baskets.

The pay of a Haytian soldier is 7 cents a day and he buys his own rations. This information will interest all uneasy Americans who contemplate a filibustering trip to the perturbed republic.

ANOTHER murderer has been acquitted in Charleston. Seven members of the McDow jury sat in the case. That jury, like the Chicago association for the execution of criminals, should get a charter and advertise for jobs.

JOHN MAGNINIS was struck by lightning yesterday and killed, while swimming in his bath house at Ocean Springs near New Orleans. The victim was the bridegroom at the famous wedding in Wm. M. Tweed's mansion at New York several years ago. His wife, who was Tweed's daughter, survives him.

Box "SUNSET" Cox delivered his patriotic address at Huron, Dak., yesterday, and was received with great enthusiasm. The Dakotans have not forgotten that Mr. Cox was the only Democrat in Congress who stood up for the admission of the territory from the outset, and without any of the impracticable conditions proposed in the Springer bill.

The raising of Kentucky hemp has been undertaken in the vicinity of Troy with marked success. Two stalks 8 feet 6 inches high have been grown on the farm of ex-Assemblyman Bancus in Schaghticoke. The New York market, however, is likely to be dull until it is settled whether the Governor's law for killing gallow-birds by electricity shall stand or we must go back to the halter.

Mrs. SMITH, the Troy firebug, has been sentenced to sixteen years in the Albany penitentiary. By good behavior she can reduce the time to ten years. As the woman is fifty-two years old, she will have to behave exceedingly well if she ever steps upon free soil again. Judge rumsan, who made himself famous in Ulster county in the case of Daniel D. Bell, pronounced the sentence.

BETTING on Sullivan since he arrived in New Orleans yesterday has been slow and only at even money. There were plenty of offers to back Kilrain at 80 to 100, but no takers. This encourages the hope that Kilrain will finish off the big Boston beast in a style that would leave nothing more to be desired. Kilrain knows what he has to do to earn the lasting gratitude of the American people, a pension for life and a monument.

AND NOW it is reported that Mayor Grant has been "sassing" Gov. Hill in a letter, because the Governor connived at the defeat of some legislation that the Mayor wanted. It is not quite a year since Mayor Hewitt wrote the famous letter to the Governor, the requirements of which the latter said he would gladly comply with if he would recall some of the offensive terms. If the Governor has fallen from the grace of Tammany, what can be his next drop? It is difficult to imagine a lower depth.

THERE is growing indignation in Charleston over McDow's acquittal, and some of Dawson's friends talk loudly of lynching. They would have been wiser if they had arranged him for manslaughter and employed able counsel. In their wrath they tried him for murder and aimed at an impossible verdict. They will be justified in driving him out of the city. But there was no evidence to convict him of murder except his own testimony, and in that he claimed to have acted in self defense.

PRESIDENT HARRISON advised the celebration of the Fourth in the old-fashioned way in his speech at Woodstock yesterday. And it can be said in support of his argument, that the more modern way, as practiced in this city, is not an improvement. It would be a good plan to begin now the groundwork for a grand old-fashioned celebration in Kingston next year, especially as there will be no politics to take care of then, and every one can give free vent to his patriotism. Besides it does not rain on every Fourth of July.

The Persian minister at Washington has resigned his office and prepared to return home. The newspapers have got off so many gibes at the gentleman that he feels forced to take this step. He leaves behind him the comfortable information that if any Persian official should publish such stuff about the American ambassador as the Washington press has published about him, the Shah would order his head off as quickly as the law of gravitation could cause it to drop. The ambassador's name is Hadji Hassan Ghooly Khan.

ON Wednesday a poorly dressed Italian workman threw himself before a locomotive in a deep cut in upper New-York and was killed in an instant. Yesterday in Newark Emilie Broulou, a well dressed Frenchman who had been showing symptoms of insanity, stepped before a flying train and faced it as it rushed upon him. His death was also instantaneous, a part of his head being carried away. If Gov. Hill's lightning current fails to kill murderers, these two events may suggest to him the expediency of trying the lightning train.

We think ex-President Cleveland is one of the "get-her-kind." Yesterday "an accident to Mr. Cleveland" was telegraphed all over the country. To-day the terrible affair is explained. Yesterday morning, while the ex-President was being driven by two young men named Jefferson to a fishing spot at Buzzard's Bay, the horse was seized with the blind staggers and the three gentlemen alighted from the carriage. The horse then broke from the driver and ran away, while Mr. Cleveland proceeded to another pond and caught 250 fish. Two years ago Mr. Cleveland went fishing on Decoration Day, but got home in time to frame a few pension votes. Our ex-President's example is not much of an inspiration to patriots.

CRASHES ON THE RAIL.

Several Persons Were Killed In Iowa Last Night.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS.

TWO BAD RAILROAD CRASHES IN IOWA.

An Excursion Train Collides With a Freight—Several Persons Killed.

DUNQUE, Ia., July 5.—A wreck occurred last night on the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas Railroad two miles north of this City. Grand Army Republic men had been holding a picnic at Twin Springs, 13 miles from Dubuque. Over 5,000 people were in attendance. Trains were run every hour to and from the grounds. A train had landed 1,200 people in this City and was returning for the remainder, about 2,000 men, women and children, when it collided with a freight train near this City. It is known that a brave man was killed and three others injured. There were a large number of people on the excursion train who were going up to pass a few hours at the resort, intending to return on the late train. It is believed many people were killed. Had the accident occurred to the south-bound excursion train the loss of life would have been fearful. No satisfactory reason for the accident has been assigned.

OTTUMWA, Ia., July 5.—A collision occurred on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad near Glendale yesterday. An east-bound stock train with two engines collided with a passenger train west-bound. Express Messenger Blackburn was buried in the wreck and probably fatally injured. A few others were slightly hurt. Three engines were badly damaged. Considerable stock was killed and injured.

A DISASTER IN VIRGINIA.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
BALTIMORE, July 5.—A News Onancock, Va., special agent, "Information has been received here that an express train on the New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Road was derailed last night. Traffic north of Eastville was stopped."

TO-DAY'S TIDINGS OF IRON HIGHWAYS.

What Railroad Companies Have Done or Intend to Do in New Year.

The Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company is planning a new passenger route to the West, which will bring it into more active rivalry with the Pennsylvania Railroad. By the new arrangement the Reading Road, instead of transferring passengers between New York and the West to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad in Philadelphia, will take them to Harrisburg, across the Susquehanna River to the terminus of the Harrisburg & Potomac Railroad; thence over the Western Maryland Railroad to a point of connection with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at or near Cumberland. From there westward the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad will be used.

The United States Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce, which has under investigation the relation of Canadian railways to Interstate Commerce laws and the United States railways, began its sessions at the office of the State Railway Commissioner in Boston to-day.

All the western railroads will doubtless meet the cut in grain rates to the seaboard made by the Baltimore & Ohio, "The Big Four" road has made a rate two cents below that of the Baltimore & Ohio.

The Northern Pacific Railroad will pay a dividend this year of probably 3 per cent. on the preferred stock. It was officially stated yesterday that the Company will issue $15,000,000 in new bonds.

Creditors of the Reading Iron Works hope to realize between 35 and 40 per cent. on their claims from personal property yet to be sold, which is valued at from $300,000 to $500,000.

New Incorporations in this State.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 5.—The following certificates of incorporation were filed in the Secretary of State's office to-day: The Dramatic Pleasure Club, No. 1, of New-York City. It is formed to further the knowledge of its members in the dramatic art and bring them together socially. Isadore Lubek, Ben Arlesberger, Minnie Oberdorfer, Mary Scheuer and William Schertz are named as Trustees for the first year.

The Prospect Lawn and Improvement Company is formed by George Edgett, David E. Taylor, J. Brice Martin, James A. Townsend, George W. Edgett and Wallace Downer, with a capital of $25,000. They propose to pursue a business of purchasing, selling, maintaining and improving real estate for residences and apartment houses. The operations of the company will include the whole State with principal office in New-York.

The Jefferson Permanent Savings and Loan Association of Buffalo have filed a certificate of change of name to "The Jefferson Permanent Dime Savings and Loan Association."

Concerning Two Bruties.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
NEW ORLEANS, July 5.—The chief topic of conversation among a certain class of people in this City at present is the forthcoming prize fight between John Kilrain and a former trainer of "Faddy" Ryan. The fight which will take place at New Orleans, will be a real money making event, and the odds are in such an event, they will get it too. A former trainer of "Faddy" Ryan stated to an Associated Press reporter to-day that if Ryan were to win the fight, he would be a rich man. He would be discouraged and lose his nerve.

Captain A. H. Behnam, Commander of the Louisiana Artillery, has received orders to call out his company to prevent the fight.

Wheat in Minnesota and Dakota.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
ST. PAUL, July 5.—According to reports received by the Northern Pacific and the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroads the wheat crop in Minnesota and North Dakota, although not as encouraging as early indications led farmers to hope for, has been considerably improved by good rains within the last three or four days. It will hardly be an average crop, but by no means a failure in any district.

A Suicide at Kansas City.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
KANSAS CITY, July 5.—The dead body of Francis D. Gammann, President of the Kansas City Curbings Works, was found in an alley yesterday. There was a bullet hole in his right temple and a revolver in his hand. Gammann recently sold some mortgaged City contracts without releasing the mortgages. He was mixed up in several crooked affairs.

A Bank Teller an Embellisher.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
HOBOKEN, N. J., July 5.—Frank Hoyt, Paying Teller of the First National Bank, was arrested to-day on the charge of embezzling $15,000. Hoyt has been connected with the bank for 15 years and bore an unblemished character. He is 38 years old and has a wife and family.

GENERAL SPORTING MATTERS NOTED.

On the Diamond, the Race Track and the Course of Yachting.

The regatta of the Canadian Association of Amateur oarsmen will take place at Hamilton Beach on August 30. It will be open to members of all Canadian rowing clubs affiliated with the Association and to all clubs in the United States recognized by the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen. Entries must be made not later than August 10.

Twenty-three yachts have already entered for the annual race of the New Rochelle Club, to be sailed to-morrow. Among them are the new 30 footer Guide, the Amazon, Flora, Moya, Madia, Roamer, Gorylla, Phantom, Empress, Wagonwheel, Wabago, Anacolia, Vixen, Curlew, and Elephant. The catboats Shrew, Giggie, Apache, Edna, So So, Ida K., and Saidee are also entered.

The cutters Nanita and Madge and the centerboard yawl Tadpole of the Knickerbocker Yacht Club are getting ready for a race out side Long Island. They started in a few days from Norton's Point, sailing to the eastward, and finish at Fort Pond Bay, just inside Montauk. The Nanita and Madge are each 23 feet long, and the Tadpole is 30 feet.

At Kenyon Park, England, to-day, the race for the Victoria Cup was won by Robert's Carnival, Ransford's Master Charlie, second; McKenzie's The Kelpie, third. The race for the Kempton Park Grand Two-year old Stake was won by Glistin-dill's Signoria; Glistin-dill's Alloway, second; Rothschild's Lactantius, third.

The proposed race between W. P. Vreeland's yacht Lida and the Leader, owned by Otto Rowe of the Pavana Yacht Club, is off. Mr. Vreeland has renewed his offer to race the Leader at any time for $500 or $1,000 a side.

The Virginia State regatta that was to have taken place at Richmond yesterday has been postponed until July 16 owing to high water. Crews are expected to be present at the time from Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and other places.

The fourth and final heat of the race for the Diamond sculls was rowed to-day at the Henley, England, regatta. Nickalls easily defeated C. G. Post, the American amateur champion. Nickalls won the sculls last year. The last rowing regatta was rowed yesterday in spite of many difficulties.

The Vakyrie suffered defeat in an English regatta yesterday.

The clubs of the National League and American Association played two games each yesterday, with the following result: National League—At Pittsburgh—Morning—Pittsburgh 4, New York 2. Afternoon—New York 6, Pittsburgh 4. At Cleveland—Morning—Boston 6, Cleveland 0. Afternoon—Cleveland 11, Boston 7. At Indianapolis—Morning—Indianapolis 6, Philadelphia 0. At Chicago—Morning—Chicago 11, Washington 5. American Association—At St. Louis—Morning—St. Louis 4, Brooklyn 3. Afternoon—Brooklyn 12, St. Louis 10. At Cincinnati—Morning—Baltimore 8, Cincinnati 0. Afternoon—Athletic 12, Louisville 1.

The number of people who witnessed games of ball yesterday in the National League, American Association, International Association and Atlantic Association is estimated at 130,791.

Von der Ahe has reinstated Chamberlain and suspended Hudson.

The cricket match at Napane, Ontario, yesterday between the Napane and St. Paul's School Clubs was an easy victory for the latter. St. Paul's went to the last inning with the lead of 88. Napane in the first inning made 37 runs; second inning 15 for four wickets when time was called.

There are many women bicyclists at the meet of the American Wheelmen at Hagers-town, Md. They wear loose, flowing costumes, which give every muscle the freest play.

The winners at Monmouth Park yesterday were Bradford, Ranocosa, Now-or-Never, Raceland, Little Ella, Sluggard, Irma H. and Unite.

Posta, American, outwound Small, English, at Henley, England, yesterday.

The Massachusetts rifle team defeated the Sussex team yesterday.

The Death Record.

David McCluskey, proprietor of the Ryan Hotel in St. Paul, Minn., and formerly proprietor of the Kennard House in Cleveland, Ohio, died last night of organic heart trouble, aged about 50 years.

Jacob M. Bunding, a resident of Crosswicks, N. J., a few miles from Bordentown, a Director of the Standard Banking Company, died yesterday afternoon aged 77 years.

William Nelson, better known under his stage name, D'Alvioli died at Chicago on Wednesday. He was one of the best-known and most expert jugglers in the country.

Hon. George H. Watrous, ex President of the New York, New-Haven & Hartford Railroad, died this morning at New-Haven, Connecticut.

Peter VanAntwerp, for many years a prominent patent lawyer of New-York City, died yesterday morning at his residence on Jersey City Heights.

William S. Oliver, a leading lawyer of Rochester, N. Y., died this morning of typhoid fever, after an illness of two weeks' duration.

William M. Lyon, the oldest iron manufacturer in the country, died suddenly of apoplexy at Pittsburg, Pa., yesterday.

Herr Hasenclever, formerly a leading socialist member of the Reichstag, is dead.

Relieving Sufferers at Johnston.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
NEW YORK, July 5.—Governor Beaver of Pennsylvania to-day sent a communication to Mayor Grant stating that they had expended nearly $1,000,000 for the relief of Johnston sufferers in food, clothing, shelter and furniture. No distribution of money had yet been made. Everything possible was being done to give prompt and intelligent relief.

ALBANY, July 5.—Superintendent of Public Works Shanahan has a check for $1,345 which he will forward to the Treasurer of the fund for the relief of the Johnston sufferers.

This money was contributed by the employees along the line of the Canal in response to a circular letter to Division Superintendents from Mr. Shanahan asking for voluntary contributions.

A Soldier Mangled by a Train.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
OWEGO, July 5.—Sergeant Daniel O'Brien, of Captain Sanderson's company, Eleventh Infantry, stationed at Fort Ontario, was struck by a train on the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad near the fort gate this morning, and so badly mangled that there is no chance of his recovery.

Ordained a Priest.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
PHILADELPHIA, July 5.—At the Cathedral this morning Thomas Ewing Sherman, eldest son of General William T. Sherman, passed through the first stage of ordination that will make him a priest of the Roman Catholic Church.

Another Arrest in Cronin Case.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
CHICAGO, July 5.—The police have made another arrest in the Cronin case.

WINNETKA, July 5.—The Burke case will be concluded to-night or to-morrow. Extrajudicial is considered certain.

PLANS OF IRISHMEN.

An "Irish-American Republican Association" Formed.

THE PRESIDENT'S OUTING.

He Enjoys Himself in New-England This Day.

THE MORTUARY RECORD.

AN "IRISH-AMERICAN REPUBLIC."

Irishmen Arrange a "New" Sort of a Plan Out in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 5.—A number of prominent Irish-Americans held a meeting here yesterday afternoon to discuss the feasibility of organizing an "Irish-American Republic" to advance the interests of Ireland and the Irish race. It was decided to adopt a plan of action formulated by William T. Griffin. An organization was perfected to be known as the "Irish-American Republican Association." Officers were elected. It is the intention of the projectors to organize a land syndicate composed of influential and wealthy Irishmen and to send representatives to Canada, Chili, Peru and Mexico. The latter country, it is understood, is willing to dispose of Lower California or a neighboring state under certain conditions with the privilege of establishing an Irish-American Republic there. The money to be spent on improvements, etc., will be secured by mortgage at a very low rate of interest and will be collected at a small yearly rate. The money will be utilized to build and equip a navy, or equip an army, or both, and the resources of the country and establish a republic.

One of the men interested in the movement said: "Should Canadian land be secured an effort will be made to colonize it with 1,000,000 Irish and Irish-American farmers. This number of Irishmen with the addition to the Irish already in Canada and with the assistance of the French Canadian element would, it is thought, be able to capture the Canadian Government and convert it into a powerful Franco Irish Republic. The only opposition likely to occur to the formation of a Franco Irish government will be in the Ontario provinces. This opposition, however, will be suppressed by throwing the disaffected portions of the provinces into the American Union. When once the independence of the United States and the neutrality laws will keep the inhabitants in check. But should England decide the authority of her Franco Irish subjects to assume exclusive control of Canadian affairs, and declare war against them, the neutrality law would not prevent the enormous emigration of Irishmen from this country to Canada."

THE OUTING OF THE PRESIDENT.

A Tree Planted at Woodstock—A Cordial Greeting at Norwich, Etc.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

NEW LONDON, Ct., July 5.—The weather at Woodstock was bright and pleasant this morning and the sun shone for the first time in three days. President Harrison arrived shortly after 6 o'clock and filled in the time before breakfast by planting a tree in the garden before the Bowen residence which he presented to Mr. Bowen. Secretary Tracy, Governor Bulkeley, Justice Miller, Senator Hawley, Congressman Reed and other guests assisted at the planting. After breakfast the President was driven to Putnam, where a special train was in waiting to carry him to New-London. He was accompanied by Governor Bulkeley, Congressman Reed, Samuel W. Bowen, W. D. Stokes, and Dispend Stuart. The train left Putnam at 8:45. President Harrison stood on the car platform and shook hands with 200 or 300 men and boys while waiting for the train to start. Along the route 60 New-London crowds were gathered at the railroad stations and cheered as the train sped by. At Plainfield a stop was made and the President did more hand shaking. One proud citizen informed the President that his newly born infant had been named Benjamin Harrison. At Norwich there was a very enthusiastic demonstration. Bands played patriotic airs and 2,000 people were packed on either side of the track. They cheered heartily as the train reached the depot. The President appeared on the back platform and in response to the cheering of the crowd made a short speech. He was introduced by Mayor Crandall, of Norwich. The President thanked the people for their presence and cordial reception and said he was glad "that the devotion to our institutions and freedom that always characterized the people of Connecticut were being perpetuated." He added: "We have here our lines of division, but it does me heart good to believe that in all that is really essential to our great Nation we are one in sympathy and one in love for the President of the United States."

Violating Banking Laws.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

ALBANY, July 5.—Under Chapter 329 of the Laws of 1885—an amendment to the revised banking law—it is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $1,000 for any person or persons engaged in a banking business not subject to the supervision of the Superintendent of the Banking Department to use any office sign at the place where such business is transacted which would indicate that such place or office is a bank. It also prohibits the using of any artificial or corporate name on stationery, for any use whatever, that indicates that the business done is the business of a bank. Suit for violation of the above may be brought by the District Attorney of the County in which the offense is committed. In the town of Pike, Wyoming County, there is a Company calling themselves the "Pike Banking Company." The Superintendent of the Banking Department having been informed of this being a violation of the law cited, states that however plain a violation it might appear to him the question is one to be decided by the District Attorney of Wyoming County, and the matter has been called to his attention.

The Dakotans have not forgotten that Mr. Cox was the only Democrat in Congress who stood up for the admission of the territory from the outset, and without any of the impracticable conditions proposed in the Springfield bill.

The raising of Kentucky hemp has been undertaken in the vicinity of Troy with marked success. Two stalks 8 feet 6 inches high have been grown on the farm of ex-Assenblyman Bancroft in Schaghticoke. The New York market, however, is likely to be dull until it is settled whether the Governor's law for killing gold-birds by electricity shall stand or we must go back to the halter.

And it can be said in support of his argument, that the more modern way, as practiced in this city, is not an improvement. It would be a good plan to begin now the groundwork for a grand old-fashioned celebration in Kingston next year, especially as there will be no politics to take care of then, and every one can give free vent to his patriotism. Besides it does not rain on every Fourth of July.

THE Persian minister at Washington has resigned his office and prepared to return home. The newspapers have got off so many gibes at the gentleman that he feels forced to take this step. He leaves behind him the comfortable information that if any Persian editor should publish such stuff about the American ambassador as the Washington press has published about him, the Shah would order his head off as quickly as the law of gravitation could cause it to drop. The ambassador's name is Hadji Hassan Ghooli Khan.

ON Wednesday a poorly dressed Italian workman threw himself before a locomotive in a deep cut in upper New-York and was killed in an instant. Yesterday in Newark Emilie Broulon, a well dressed Frenchman who had been showing symptoms of insanity, stepped before a flying train and faced it as it rushed upon him. His death was also instantaneous, a part of his head being carried away. If Gov. Hill's lightning current fails to kill murderers, these two events may suggest to him the expediency of trying the lightning train.

We think ex-President Cleveland is one of the "get-there" kind. Yesterday "an accident" to the "Cleveland" was telegraphed all over the country. To-day the terrible affair is explained. Yesterday morning, while the ex-President was being driven by two young men named Jefferson to a fishing spot at Buzzards Bay, the horse was seized with the blind staggers and the three gentlemen alighted from the carriage. The horse then broke from the driver and ran away, while Mr. Cleveland proceeded to mother pond and caught 250 fish. Two years ago Mr. Cleveland was fishing on Decoration Day, but got home in time to frame a few pension vetoes. Our ex-President's example is not much of an inspiration to patriotism.

CRASHES ON THE RAIL.

Several Persons Were Killed In Iowa Last Night.

A BANK TELLER A THIEF.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS.

TWO BAD RAILROAD CRASHES IN IOWA.

An Excursion Train Collides With a Freight Train—Several Persons Killed.

DUBUQUE, Ia., July 5.—A wreck occurred last night on the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas Railroad two miles north of this city. A Grand American Republic men had been holding a picnic at Twin Springs, 13 miles from Dubuque. Over 5,000 people were in attendance. Trains were run every hour to and from the grounds. A train had landed 1,200 people in this city and was returning for the remainder, about 2,000 men, women and children, when it collided with a freight train near this city. It is known that a brakeman was killed and three others injured. There were a large number of people on the excursion train who were going up to pass a few hours at the resort, intending to return on the late train. It is believed many people were killed. Had the accident occurred to the south-bound excursion train the loss of life would have been fearful. No satisfactory reason for the accident has been assigned.

OTTUMWA, Ia., July 5.—A collision occurred on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad near Ottumwa yesterday. An east-bound south train with two engines collided with a passenger train west-bound. Express Messenger Blackburn was buried in the wreck and probably fatally injured. A few others were slightly hurt. Three engines were badly damaged. Considerable stock was killed and injured.

A DISASTER IN VIRGINIA.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BALTIMORE, July 5.—A News Onancock, Va., special says: "Information has been received here that an express train on the New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Road, which ditched last night, Traffic north of Eastville was stopped."

TO-DAY'S TIDINGS OF IRON HIGHWAYS.

What Railroad Companies Have Done or Intend to Do in New York.

The Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company is planning a new passenger route to the West, which will bring it into more active rivalry with the Pennsylvania Railroad. By the new arrangement the Reading Road, instead of transferring passengers between New York and the West to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad in Philadelphia, will take them to Harrisburg, across the Susquehanna River to the terminus of the Harrisburg & Potomac Railroad; thence over the Western Maryland Railroad to a point of connection with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at or near Cumberland. From there westward the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad will be used.

The United States Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce, which has under investigation the relation of Canadian railways to Interstate Commerce laws and the United States railways, began its sessions at the office of the State Railway Commissioner in Boston to-day.

All the western railroads will doubtless meet the cut in grain rates to the seaboard made by the Baltimore & Ohio. The "Big Four" road is forming a rate two cents below that of the Baltimore & Ohio.

The Northern Pacific Railroad will pay a dividend this year of probably 3 per cent, on the preferred stock. It was officially stated yesterday that the company will issue $15,000,000 in new bonds.

Creditors of the Reading Iron Works hope to realize between 35 and 40 per cent, on their claims from personal property yet to be sold, which is valued at from $300,000 to $500,000.

New Incorporations in This State.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 5.—The following certificates of incorporation were filed in the Secretary of State's office to-day: The Dramatic Pleasure Club, No. 1, of New York City, is formed to further the knowledge of its members in the dramatic art and bring them together socially. Isadore Lubek, Rosa Arlischinsky, Minnie Oberdorfer, Mary Scheur and William Schwartz are named as Trustees for the first year.

The Prospect Lawn and Improvement Company is formed by George Edgett, David E. Taylor, J. Brice Martin, James A. Townsend, George W. Edgett and Wallace D. Taylor, a capital of $25,000. They propose to pursue a business of purchasing, selling, maintaining and improving real estate for residences and apartment houses. The operations of the company will include the whole State with principal office in New York.

The Jefferson Permanent Savings and Loan Association of Buffalo have filed a certificate of change of name to "The Jefferson Permanent Dime Savings and Loan Association."

Concerning Two Brutes.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-ORLEANS, July 5.—The chief topic of conversation among a certain class of people in this city at present is the fight between the two brutes, Sullivan and Kilrain. Sullivan is here and Kilrain is expected to arrive here tomorrow. The fight should prove a "fake," as it has been hinted it will be, the people of this section of the country who will demand their money back, and the odds are in favor of "Paddy" Ryan, who is expected to win. "Paddy" Ryan stated in an Associated Press reporter to-day that if Sullivan fails to accomplish anything in his first fight he will be discouraged and lose his nerve. Captain A. H. Behnam, Commander of the Louisiana Artillery, has received orders to call out his company to prevent the fight.

Wheat in Minnesota and Dakota.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. PAUL, July 5.—According to reports received by the Northern Pacific and the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroads the wheat crop in Minnesota and North Dakota, although not as encouraging as early indications led farmers to hope for, has been considerably improved by good rains within the last three or four days. It will hardly be an average crop, but is by no means a failure in any district.

A Suicide at Kansas City.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

KANSAS CITY, July 5.—The dead body of Francis D. Gammann, President of the Kansas City Curbings Works, was found in an alley yesterday. There was a bullet hole in his right temple and a revolver in his hand. Gammann recently sold some mortgaged city contracts without releasing the mortgages. He was mixed up in several crooked affairs.

A Bank Teller an Embosser.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

HONOLULU, N. H., July 5.—Frank Hoyt, Paying Teller of the First National Bank, was arrested today on the charge of embezzling $15,000. Hoyt has been connected with the bank for 15 years and bore an unblemished character. He is 38 years old and has a wife and family.

GENERAL SPORTING MATTERS NOTED.

On the Diamond, the Race Track and the Course for Yachmen.

The regatta of the Canadian Association of Amateur oarsmen will take place at Hamilton Beach on August 20. It will be open to members of all Canadian rowing clubs affiliated with the Association and to all clubs in the United States recognized by the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen. Entries must be made not later than August 10.

Twenty-three yachts have already entered for the annual race of the New Rochelle Club, to be sailed to-morrow. Among them are the new 30-footer Guide, the Amazon, Flora, Moya, Maida, Roamer, Eurybia, Phantom, Empress, Warrent, Waliso, Amcondia, Wlen, Curlew and Elephant. The cutboats Shrew, Giggie, Apache, Edna, So So, Ida K., and Saidee are also entered.

The cutters Nanita and Madge and the centerboard yawl Tadpole of the Knickerbocker Yacht Club are getting ready for a race out side Long Island. They start in a few days from Norton's Point, sailing to the eastward, and finish at Port Pond Bay, just inside Montauk. The Nanita and Madge are each 23 feet long, and the Tadpole is 20 feet.

At Kempton Park, England, to-day, the race for the Victoria Cup was won by Robert's Carnival, Ransford's Master Charles, second; Mervin, the Kelpie, third. The race for the Kempton Park Grand Two-year-old Stakes was won by Glistrill's Signorina; Houdsworth's Alloway, second; Rothschild's Lacatius, third.

The proposed race between W. P. Vreeland and Edith Light and the Leader, owned by Otto Howe of the Pavana Yacht Club, is off. Mr. Vreeland has renewed his offer to race the Leader at any time for $500 or $1,000 a side.

The Virginia State regatta that was to have taken place at Richmond yesterday has been postponed until July 16 owing to high water. Crews are expected to be present at that time from Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other places.

The fourth and final heat of the race for the Diamond sculls was rowed to-day at the Henley, England, regatta. Nickalls easily defeated C. G. Post, the American amateur champion. Nickalls wore the sculls last year.

The Larchmont and Sing Sing yacht clubs carried out their regatta successfully yesterday in spite of many difficulties.

The Yalkeye suffered defeat in an English regatta.

The clubs of the National League and American Association played two games each yesterday, with the following result: National League—At Pittsburgh—Morning: Pittsburgh 4, New York 2. The number of people who witnessed games of ball yesterday in the National League, American Association, International Association and Atlantic Association is estimated at 130,791.

Von der Ahe has reinstated Chamberlain and suspended Hudson.

The cricket match at Napanee, Ontario, between the Napanee and Toronto clubs, was a very easy victory for the latter. St. Paul's went to the bat first and made 78 runs; second inning 98. Napanee in the first inning made 27 runs; second 15 for four wickets when time was called.

There are many women bicyclists at the meet of the American Wheelmen at Hagers-town, Md. They wear loose, flowing costumes, which give every muscle the freest play.

The winners at Monmouth ball yesterday were Bradford, Rancocas, Now-or-Never, Raceland, Little Ella, Shuggard, Irma H. and Unite.

Psotta, American, outwrested Small, English, at Henley, England, yesterday.

The Massachusetts rifle team defeated the Sussex team yesterday.

The Death Record.

David McClasky, proprietor of the Ryan Hotel in St. Paul, Minn., and formerly proprietor of the Kennard House in Cleveland, died last night of organic heart trouble, aged about 30 years.

Jacob M. Bunding, a resident of Crosswicks, N. J., a few miles from Bordentown, and a Director of the Bordentown Banking Company, died yesterday afternoon aged 77 years.

William Nelson, better known under his stage name, D'Alvi, died at Chicago on Wednesday. He was one of the best-known and most expert jugglers in the country.

Hon. George H. Watrous, ex President of the New York, New-Haven & Hartford Railroad, died suddenly this morning at New-Haven, Connecticut.

Peter VanAntwerp, for many years a prominent patent lawyer of New York City, died yesterday morning at his residence on Jersey City Heights.

William S. Oliver, a leading lawyer of Rochester, N. Y., died this morning of typhoid fever, after an illness of two weeks duration.

Herr Hasenclever, formerly a leading Socialist member of the Reichstag, is dead.

Violating Banking Laws.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, July 5.—Under Chapter 329 of the Laws of 1885—an amendment to the revised banking law—it is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $1,000 for any person or persons engaged in a banking business not subject to the supervision of the Superintendent of the Banking Department, to use any office sign at the place where such business is transacted which would indicate that such place or office is a bank. It also prohibits the using of any artificial or corporate name on stationery, for any use whatever, that indicates that the business done is the business of a bank. Suit for violation of the above may be brought by the District Attorney of the County in which the offense is committed. In the town of Pike, Wyoming County, there is a Company calling themselves the "Pike Banking Company." The Superintendent of the Banking Department having been informed of this being a violation of the law cited, states that however plain a violation it might appear, the question is to be decided by the District Attorney of Wyoming County, and the matter has been called to his attention.

Decision in Favor of Bucket-Shops.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The Board of Trade received a hard rap this morning by the decision of Judges Horton, Tuley and Collins, sitting en banc, on the motion of the Board's attorney to dissolve the preliminary injunction to prevent the Board from withholding its quotations from the bucket-shops. The Judges deny the motion on the ground that the market quotations are of such importance to the public that they should be considered public property, and that if the injunction were dissolved the tendency would be to create a monopoly of the Board.

THE MORTUARY RECORD.

AN "IRISH-AMERICAN REPUBLIC."

Irishmen Arrange a "Nice" Sort of a Plan Out in Chicago.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, July 5.—A number of prominent Irish-Americans held a meeting here yesterday afternoon to discuss the feasibility of organizing an "Irish-American Republic" to advance the interests of Ireland and the Irish race. It was decided to adopt a plan of action formulated by William T. Griffin. An organization was perfected to be known as the "Irish-American Republican Association." Officers were elected. It is the intention of the projectors to organize a land syndicate composed of influential and wealthy Irishmen and to send representatives to Canada, Chili, Peru and other countries, to secure the purchase of land, to be secured by mortgage at a very low rate of interest and will be collected at a small yearly rate. The money will be utilized to build and equip a navy, and to develop the resources of the country and establish a republic.

One of the men interested in the movement said: "Should Canada land be secured an effort will be made to colonize it with 1,000,000 Irish and Irish-American farmers. This number of Irishmen with the addition to the Irish already in Canada and with the assistance of the French Canadian element would, it is thought, be able to capture the Canadian Government and convert it into a powerful Franco-Irish Republic. The only opposition likely to occur to the formation of a Franco-Irish government will be in the Ontario provinces. This opposition, however, will be suppressed by throwing the disaffected portions of the provinces into the American Union. When once in the jurisdiction of the United States the nationality laws will keep the inhabitants in check. But should the British Government refuse to accept of the Franco-Irish subjects as same exclusive control of Canadian affairs, and declare war against them, the neutrality of Irishmen from this country to Canada."

THE OUTING OF THE PRESIDENT.

A Tree Planted at Woodstock—A Cordial Greeting at Norwich, Etc.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-LONDON, Ct., July 5.—The weather at Woodstock was bright and pleasant this morning and the sun shone for the first time in three days. President Harrison arose shortly after 6 o'clock and filled in the time before breakfast by planting a tree in the garden before the Boarding house. Putnam presented to Mr. Bowen, Secretary Tracy, Governor Bulkeley, Justice Miller, Senator Hawley, Congressman Reed and other guests assisted at the planting. After breakfast the President was driven to Putnam, where a special train was in waiting to carry him to New-London. He was accompanied by Governor Bulkeley, Congressman Reed, Clarence W. Bowen, W. E. D. Stokes, and Edward Stewart. The train left Putnam at 8:05. President Harrison stood on the car platform and shook hands with 200 or 300 men and boys while waiting for the train to start. Along the route to New-London crowds were gathered at the railroad stations and cheered as the train sped by. At Plainfield a stop was made and the President did more hand shaking. One proud citizen informed the President that his newly-born infant had been named Benjamin Harrison. At Norwich there was a very enthusiastic demonstration. Bands played patriotic airs and 2,000 people were packed on either side of the track. They cheered heartily as the train reached the depot. The President appeared on the back platform and in response to the manifestations of the crowd made a short speech. He was introduced by Mayor Grand, of Norwich. The President thanked the people for their presence and cordial reception and said he was glad "that the devotion to our institutions and freedom that always characterized the people of Connecticut were being perpetuated." He added: "We have here our lines of division, but it does my heart good to believe that in all that is really essential to our great Nation we are one in sympathy and one in love for the President. The Mayor then introduced Secretary Tracy, Governor Bulkeley and Senator Hawley, and the latter two made brief addresses. The train reached New-London at 9:35. There was another demonstration at New-London and before leaving the train for Putnam, where a few words to throng. Governor Ladd, of Rhode Island, and Senator Aldrich greeted the party and went with it to the Despatch to New-York.

ASSESSMENT PECULIARITIES.

The Democratic officials of our present state government have a habit of looking after their own which is always commendable when not practiced at the expense of somebody else. The State Board of Equalization of Assessments exhibits this propensity in a striking manner. The Board consists of the Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney General,
State Engineer and Surveyor, Speaker of the Assembly and three State Assessors. A writer in the Utica Herald has been looking after the acts of this board, and discovers the following reductions of assessed valuations made by them during the last two years upon
the respective counties in which they reside:

1887.	Reductions.
Albany, engineer and surveyor	$1,022,383
Brown, lieutenant governor	9,927,744
Cattaraugus, state assessor	7,019,815
Jefferson, state assessor and attorney gen- eral	7,238,098
Monroe, secretary of state	28,826,186
Kings, comptroller	22,992,754
Total	$57,169,127

1888.	Reductions.
Albany, engineer and surveyor	$11,890,888
Brown, lieutenant governor	8,636,711
Cattaraugus, state assessor	9,927,744
Jefferson, state assessor	7,019,815
Monroe, secretary of state	28,826,186
Kings, comptroller	22,992,754
Total	$91,482,824

All of the officials represented in the above list are Democrats. The only member of the Board who is a Republican is the Speaker, whose county, Schuyler, does not appear to have received much of a benefit either year.
Mr. Cole may have tried to obtain a reduction, but what chance would he have with a Democratic majority who understand that he is obnoxious to Gov. Hill?

These reductions have all to be added to the assessments of other counties. Oneida suffered an increase of $9,211,171. Westchester of $17,749,948. Columbia of $4,337,239, and almost every small county in the state was compelled to take a slice, unless it was protected by powerful Democratic influence.
Like Chemung or Clinton. Kings and Montgomery furnish an instance of the influence that a member of the Board can exert. In 1887 Kings was represented in the Board by the Comptroller, and that year its assessment was reduced nearly $24,000,000. But in 1888 Mr. Chapin was out of the Comptroller's office, and Mr. Wemple of Montgomery was in it. That year Kings' assessment went up again about $23,000,000, and Montgomery's fell $1,500,-
000. The latter was a decrease of nearly $7
on every acre of land in Wemple's small county. Jefferson received a benefit each year, for though she lost the Attorney General in 1888 she retained the Assessor.
The Attorney Generalship went to Erie, and that county received a benefit of more than $28,000,000, which had to be laid on taxpayers in other parts of the state.

Some reliable Democratic counties received extraordinary reductions. That upon Schoharie was $2,898,397, an average of nearly $8
per acre upon its 374,245 acres of land.
Schenectady was reduced $840,291, or at the rate of $7 per acre. Chemung, the Governor's own county, was reduced $1,453,542, or $6 per acre. Niagara, a county that occasionally gives Democratic majorities, was reduced $1,248,044, or $12 an acre. And Rensselaer, the home of Ed. Murphy, actually received a reduction of $2,764,092, of which nearly one-half was undisturbed upon Oneida, and the rest upon Saratoga, Washington and Tompkins.

This is Democratic financing; and a very peculiar idea of equality it exhibits. Of course the counties benefited are expected to be grateful, and to stand by the party that relieved them of their just share of their obligations to the state. But what do those counties that are forced to accept the load prosecuted to do about it? In this connection it is proper to state that while Ulster suffers no considerable increase over the return made to the state, her reduction would have been larger if she had been treated like other counties which adopt the same rule of local valuation.

THE COST OF ONE VETO.

The Governor made a serious mistake,
without doubt, in vetoing the Vedder Liquor Tax bill. It was a simple bill, dividing dealers into two classes, and taxing the dealers
in spirituous liquors $100 and in malt liquors $20 each. This tax was not oppressive, and no dealer in any locality where there is a call for a saloon would be seriously inconvenienced
by it. It was not an attack upon the moral character of the liquor trade; it simply asked that trade to take a share of the tax burdens of the state which has been so generous in its laws towards the dealers. It appears that the idea had got abroad that the Governor would sign the bill, even though he should veto the one framed by the commission that was created at his suggestion. City Boards of Aldermen and county Boards of Supervisors in many instances reduced their rates of taxation on the expectation of revenue derived from the law, and now find their finances badly crippled. The Governor saved $10,000 to the state that had been appropriated to carry the law into effect; now let us see what he threw away.

The Tribune has obtained from sixteen cities of the state a report of what the income from this bill would have been if it had become a law and every retailing establishment had continued in existence and paid
the tax. The cities in its list are Albany, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Buffalo, Ithaca, Lock-
port, Newburgh, New York, Ogdensburg, Rochester, Rome, Syracuse, Troy and Utica.
The tax would have gathered from these cities $1,526,020. Albany would have received $90,440, Brooklyn $10,860, Buffalo
$218,000, Rochester $99,160, New York
$542,580, Utica $47,580, Syracuse $29,000, Troy $68,000, and the other cities smaller amounts. There still remain fourteen cities to be heard from, and these include Kingston, Cohoes, Elmira, Poughkeepsie, Oswego and Yonkers. There are also 344 incorporated villages in the state, some of them
larger than the smaller class of cities and almost every one of which has a few saloons. The Tribune estimates the total loss to the counties of the state by the Governor's veto at $2,000,000.
And how lightly this tax would have borne upon the liquor trade appears from the fact that it is only a little over half a million in the city of New York, while the New York

State once estimated that an advance of one cent a quart on the beer sold to the "growler" trade alone would increase the profits about $3,000,000. The Governor is altogether too scrupulous in his tender regard for the liquor trade. It could have borne this small tax without feeling it.

TAMMANY PATRIOTISM.

Tammany celebrated the Fourth as a Democratic organization. Bourke Cockran was the leading orator, and what he said was all right, save that he did not mention the name of David B. Hill. Letters from various distinguished Democrats were read, and it was observed that the one from Cleveland was much more noisily applauded than that from Hill. There was nothing in either letter to which a properly regulated Democrat could take exception.

The rip roaring Democracy of Tammany found more satisfactory mouth pieces in Gov.
Biggs of Delaware and hold-over Gov. Wilson of West Virginia. Biggs pitched into the Republican Senator from Delaware, and uttered such blackguard sentiments about him that the cheers frequently drowned his voice. Then he attacked the civil service law, and declared himself in favor of its destruction, root and branch. He held up the government of Delaware as a model for other Democratic states, as all the officers of the state, from Chief Justice down, receive their appointment from the Governor.
The poll-tax, which is employed to keep Republicans away from the polls, he praised as a great conservative measure, and wound up with a eulogy on the whipping post, which,
though all other claims might fall established,
the title of Delaware to the foremost place
among the states in the ranks of humanity,
civilization and progress.

Then Gov. Wilson, who is holding the office which belongs to another man in order to give the Legislature time to count out the man who was elected, came forward and began his oration with a vituperative attack on Alexander Hamilton who died 85 years ago. He described Hamilton as such a disreputable character that his descendants were ashamed of him.
Then he abused the Republican party because Hamilton was one of its patron saints. Before he got through with the author of the constitution his voice became so hoarse that his words were inaudible beyond the first row of seats. He concluded with the declaration that he "would not live in the same house with a monopolist."

The Democratic taste in employing these drunken, swaggering bullies of the South to speak in the North may be accounted for,
but why it should be deemed expedient passes understanding. The experience gained from trotting Mills, McMillin,
the Breckinridges and other ex-rebel through the Northern and Western states last fall ought to have proved a sufficient lesson to all who are interested in Democratic success and the character of their party. It may be, however, that these men insist on the right to talk everywhere and at all times, and to talk in the blood-and-thunder style of the Southern fire-eater, as the single condition on which they will consent to stay a little longer in the Union.

PUBLIC OPINION.

For you, John Sullivan here is the straight tip. Defeat is your Scylla and your Charibdis is homicide. It promises to need a nice discrimination in you to steer between them. —Rochester Union.

Things are seldom so bad that they could not be worse. How much hotter this weather might be, for instance, if the shining surface of the sun were not obscured by a spot 24,000 miles across. —Philadelphia Ledger.

James E. Campbell, who is aspiring to the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in Ohio, tells his admirers that "the Democratic Convention of Ohio cannot make a platform that I cannot stand on." Here is a truly Democratic conscience. —Buffalo Express.

Of course the Democrats ought to "get together," as Mr. Randall recommends; but how can they do so when they have not yet recovered from the panic which seized them last November? They will do well if they quit running in time to hold a convention before the dog days of 1892. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It is a Republican administration and it is a Republican Postmaster General who has decided to abolish the sickly green postage
stamp, but it is the Democratic New York
Sun which is to be congratulated the most heartily. The Sun inaugurated the war against the little abomination and is now fairly excited to join the triumphal procession which will celebrate the Postmaster-General's decision. —Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Now that William Walter Phelps has been appointed Minister to Germany, our esteemed Democratic contemporaries should lose no time in opening the discussion as to the diplomatic aspects of his bang. That bang is an object of profound and permanent solitude to our friends the enemy—almost as much so, in fact, as Baby McKee. But when the people understand that it covers a scar
the Democrats will have less to say about it.
—Philadelphia Press.

There is one fact to which the attention of the dissatisfied manufacturers of the North and East ought to be called, namely: that notwithstanding the decrease in the iron industries of those sections, the iron and steel production of the United States has fallen off only 10 per cent. It has steadily increased during the past ten years, a fact which shows conclusively that what is New England's loss is the gain of the South. Nothing whatever is lost to the country at large. —Atlanta Constitution.

The indications are that we will have a hot and dry July. It is inconceivable that the almost unprecedented wet and cool weather of June should be protracted during another month. But the prospects that we are to have plenty of heat need discourage nobody. "Keep cool" is advice, but it is always worthy of repetition. "Don't fret," comes under the same head. The observance of these, with proper attention to diet and clothing, will tide us all bravely over the hated season. —Utica Observer.

ASSESSMENT PECULIARITIES.

The Democratic officials of our present state government have a habit of looking after their own which is always commendable when not practiced at the expense of somebody else. The State Board of Equalization of Assessments exhibits this propensity in a striking manner. The Board consists of the Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney General, State Engineer and Surveyor, Speaker of the Assembly and three State Assessors. A writer in the Utica Herald has been looking after the acts of this board, and discovers the following reductions of assessed valuations made by them during the last two years upon the respective counties in which they reside:

1887. Reductions.
Albany, engineer and surveyor.....$13,622,381
Broome, lieutenant governor.....8,629,274
Cattaraugus, state assessor.....7,019,415
Jefferson, state assessor and attorney gen.....7,726,998
Montgomery, secretary of state.....7,526,362
Kings, comptroller.....22,909,738
Total.....$57,196,127

1888. Reductions.
Albany, engineer and surveyor.....$11,490,988
Broome, lieutenant governor.....8,629,274
Cattaraugus, state assessor.....7,019,415
Jefferson, state assessor and attorney gen.....7,726,998
Montgomery, secretary of state.....7,526,362
Kings, comptroller.....22,909,738
Total.....$51,482,824

All of the officials represented in the above list are Democrats. The only member of the Board who is a Republican is the Speaker, whose county, Schuyler, does not appear to have received much of a benefit either year. Mr. Cole may have tried to obtain a reduction, but what chance would he have with a Democratic majority who understand that he is obnoxious to Gov. Hill?

These reductions have all to be added to the assessments of other counties. Oneida suffered an increase of $9,211,171. Westchester of $17,740,948. Columbia of $3,337,239, and almost every small county in the state was compelled to take a slice, unless it was protected by powerful Democratic influence, like Chemung or Clinton. Kings and Mont.gomery furnish an instance of the influence that a member of the Board can exert. In 1887 Kings was represented in the Board by the Comptroller, and that year its assessment was reduced nearly $23,000,000. But in 1888 Mr. Chapin was out of the Comptroller's office, and Mr. Wemple of Montgomery was in it. That year Kings' assessment went up again about $23,000,000, and Montgomery's fell $1,500,000. The latter was a decrease of nearly $7 on every acre of land in Wemple's small county. Jefferson received a benefit each year, for though she lost the Attorney General in 1888 she retained the Assessor. The Attorney Generalship went to Eric, and that county received a benefit of more than $28,000,000, which had to be laid on taxpayers in other parts of the state.

Some reliable Democratic counties received extraordinary reductions. That upon Schoharie was $2,868,387, an average of nearly $6 per acre upon its 374,245 acres of land. Schoharie was reduced $840,291, or at the rate of $7 per acre. Chemung, the Governor's own county, was reduced $1,453,742, or $6 per acre. Niagara, a county that occasionally gives Democratic majorities, was reduced $1,248,044, or $12 an acre. Ad. Rensselaer, the home of Ed. Murphy, actually received a reduction of $21,764,092, of which nearly one-half was unloaded upon Oneida, and the rest upon Saratoga, Washington and Tompkins.

This is Democratic financiering; and a very peculiar idea of equality it exhibits. Of course the counties benefited are expected to be grateful, and to stand by the party that relieved them of their just share of their obligations to the state. But what do those counties that are forced to accept the load propose to do about it? In this connection it is proper to state that while Ulster suffers no considerable increase over the return made to the state, her reduction would have been larger if she had been treated like other counties which adopted the same rule of local valuation.

THE COST OF ONE VETO.

The Governor made a serious mistake, without doubt, in vetoing the Vedder Liqueur Tax bill. It was a simple bill, dividing dealers into two classes, and taxing the dealers in spirituous liquors $100 and in malt liquors $20 each. This tax is not oppressive, and no dealer in any locality where there is a call for a saloon would be seriously inconvenienced by it. It was not an attack upon the moral character of the liquor trade; it simply asked that trade to take a share of the tax burdens of the state which has been so generous in its laws towards the dealers. It appears that the idea had got abroad that the Governor would sign the bill, even though he should veto it; the one framed by the commission that was created at his suggestion. City Boards of Aldermen and county Boards of Supervisors in many instances reduced their rates of taxation on the expectation of revenue derived from the law, and now find their finances badly crippled. The Governor saved $10,000 to the state that had been appropriated to carry the law into effect; now let us see what he threw away.

The Tribune has obtained from sixteen cities of the state a report of what the income from this bill would have been if it had become a law and every retailing establishment had continued in existence and paid the tax. The cities in its list are Albany, Auburn, Binghamton, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Hudson, Ithaca, Lockport, Newburgh, New York, Ogdensburg, Rochester, Rome, Syracuse, Troy and Utica. The tax would have gathered from these cities $1,526,030. Albany would have received $90,440, Brooklyn $10,860, Buffalo $218,600, Rochester $29,160, New York $542,580, Utica $47,580, Syracuse $29,900, Troy $26,000, and the other cities smaller amounts. There still remain fourteen cities to be heard from, and these include Kingston, Cohoes, Elmira, Poughkeepsie, Oswego and Yonkers. There are also 344 incorporated villages in the state, some of which are larger than the smaller class of cities and almost every one of which has a few saloons. The Tribune estimates the total loss to the counties of the state by the Governor's veto at $2,000,000. And how lightly this veto would have borne upon the liquor trade appears from the fact that it is only a little over half a million in the city of New York, while the New York

Shen once estimated that an advance of one cent a quart on the beer sold to the "growler" trade alone would increase the profits about $3,000,000. The Governor is altogether too sensitive in his tender regard for the liquor trade. It could have borne this small tax without feeling it.

TAMMANY PATRIOTISM.

Tammany celebrated the Fourth as a Democratic organization. Bourke Cockran was the leading orator, and what he said was all right, save that he did not mention the name of David B. Hill. Letters from various distinguished Democrats were read, and it was observed that the one from Cleveland was much more noisily applauded than that from Hill. There was nothing in either letter to which a properly regulated Democrat could take exception.

The rip roaring Democracy of Tammany found more satisfactory mouth-pieces in Gov. Biggs of Delaware and hold-over Gov. Wilson of West Virginia. Biggs pitched into the Republican Senator from Delaware, and uttered such blackguard sentiments about him that the cheers frequently drowned his voice. Then he attacked the civil service law, and declared himself in favor of its destruction, root and branch. He held up the government of Delaware as a model for other Democratic states, as all the officers of the state, from Chief Justice down, receive their appointment from the Governor. The poll-tax, which is employed to keep Republicans away from the polls, he praised as a great conservative measure, and wound up with a eulogy on the whipping post, which, though all other claims might fall, established the title of Delaware to the foremost place among the states in the ranks of humanity, civilization and progress.

Then Gov. Wilson, who is holding the office which belongs to another man in order to give the Legislature time to count out the man who was elected, came forward and began his oration with a vituperative attack on Alexander Hamilton who died 85 years ago. He described Hamilton as such a disreputable character that his descendants were ashamed of him. Then he abused the Republican party because Hamilton was one of its patron saints. Before he got through with the author of the constitution his voice became so hoarse that his words were inaudible beyond the first row of seats. He concluded with the declaration that he "would not live in the same house with a monopolist."

The Democratic taste in employing these drunken, swaggering bullies of the South to speak in the North may be accounted for, but why it should be deemed expedient passes understanding. The experience gained from trotting Mills, McMillin, the Breckinridges and other ex-rebels through the Northern and Western states last fall ought to have proved a sufficient lesson to all who are interested in Democratic success and the character of their party. It may be, however, that these men insist on the right to talk everywhere and at all times, and to talk in the blood-and-thunder style of the Southern fire-eater, as the single condition on which they will consent to stay a little longer in the Union.

PUBLIC OPINION.

For you, John Sullivan, here is the straight tip. Defeat is your Scylla and your Charybdis is homicide. It promises to need a nice discrimination in you to steer between them. —Philadelphia Union.

When health is lost. Be timely wise,
With ill-health all taste of pleasure flies."
So speaks Gray, and who denies?
No surfer faint beneath the skies.
Because he is not timely wise.
Alas for him who stings himself
The ill he might so quickly cure:
Night-sweats, and cough, and hard-caught breath,
Consumption's heralds, signs of death.
To be cured, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Thousands have been cured by it who otherwise would not be filling untimely graves. For all liver, blood and lung diseases it is a specific.

Now that William Sullivan has been appointed Minister to Germany, our esteemed Democratic contemporaries should lose no time in opening the discussion as to the diplomatic aspects of his bang. That bang is an object of profound and permanent solicitude to our friends the enemy—almost as much so, in fact, as Baby McKee. But when the people understand that it covers a scar the Democrats will have less to say about it. —Philadelphia Press.

There is one fact to which the attention of the dissatisfied manufacturers of the North and East ought to be called, namely: that notwithstanding the decrease in the iron industries of those sections, the iron and steel production of the United States has not fallen off. On the contrary, it has steadily increased during the past ten years, a fact which shows conclusively that what is New England's loss is the gain of the South. Nothing whatever is lost to the country at large. —Atlanta Constitution.

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH KIDNEY AND BLADDER PILLS.

At a citizens' meeting held Wednesday afternoon at Detroit a committee of 15 was chosen, with Mayor Pridgen as Chairman, to attend the annual convention of the Grand Army of the Republic at Milwaukee for the purpose of securing next year's encampment for that City.

A female crank from New York was sent away from the Standing Rock Agency recently.

The superior quality of the flour made from wheat grown in the high latitudes of the Northwest is quite well known, but it is perhaps not so generally known that the northern countries of the world where the difficulties surrounding agriculture are great, both in the way of production and access to markets, are the only countries producing wheat of the highest quality. It has been found to be a necessity by millers everywhere who aim to produce first-class flour to add to the softer wheats produced in temperate and southern latitudes a large proportion of the harder wheats grown in northern countries, and it is said that the larger proportion of hard wheat used the stronger and better will be the flour. Most of the hard wheats which find their way to the markets of the world, says Director Saunders, of the Dominion experimental farms, Ottawa, Canada, are the growth of the northern plains of Russia, the northern United States and the north-west provinces of Canada. For two years past a variety grown in Russia, near Lake Ladoga, north of St. Petersburg, has been the subject of cultivation at different points in the Dominion, with the view of testing its fertility and earliness in ripening as compared with the Red Fife, the present standard variety.

Queen Victoria is in the habit of keeping rooms which have been occupied by deceased relatives locked up. The apartments at Broomfield House, the residence of the Queen, died more than 70 years ago are closed, and nobody is allowed to use them. Prince Albert's apartments at Windsor, Osborne, and Balmoral are all kept precisely as they were when he was alive; and on the wall of the room in which he died there is a tablet, with an inscription recording the fact that "this apartment was the scene of his demise." John Brown's rooms at Windsor have also been closed since his death and marked with a large brass sign with an inscription commemorating his virtues and deploring his loss.

A recent driving competition at the Ranch club brought out twelve coaches. The prize for the best perfect turn-out—coach, horses and harness—was won by Sir Sayward Crossley. Then there was a trial over a specially prepared course, where various obstacles were placed to test the powers of the driver. There were a set of posts with bottles on the top, which would fall at the slightest touch. A low archway and a narrow street were represented by the scenery of the trip. Captain Pryce Hamilton won, going over the course not only on a trot, but at a gallop.

The alarm which was sounded at Vienna a few weeks ago has succumbed to a reaction, and the alarmists newspapers declare that the time has not yet come for Russia to raise the Eastern question. The opinion is that the tension which has existed in Europe for some years past has of late been grossly exaggerated. The key to the situation is whether Russia is prepared to bring the Eastern question to an issue. In the opinion of competent judges it is not.

A queer trout story comes from Kineo. A party of fishermen were angling from a row-boat, and one of their number was feeling for trout when, in the clear water, a larger, 10-pounder was seen to start, open-mouthed, after the small fish. The little fellow forsook the bait and swam round and round the boat, hotly pursued by the big fish. When two or three circles had been made, and both fish were nearing the top of the water, a man in the stern of the boat suddenly took his dip net in and neatly scooped the 10-pounder out.

The Empress of Germany has an army of seamstresses, but it is her delight to preside over and assist in the manufacture of her children's garments. She is a person of taste, and generally picks her own and her children's pieces to pieces. She is a great admirer of English-made goods, and is a great devotee of the English-made goods. She is also an expert in the art of embroidery in both white and colors, and is as industrious as many a woman of limited means.

David S. Wise, a farmer, aged 50 years, was struck dead by lightning while riding on a hay rack near Magador, Summit County, Ohio, on Wednesday. The lightning struck at the time, and the lightning came from a very small cloud. Two sons of Mr. Wise, riding on the rack with him, were knocked insensible, as was also a woman in a house near by. The horse he was driving was killed by the same bolt.

Dr. Hoffman, the author of "Straw-wedder," a Slovenly Peter, as he is called, is a native of England, a workman, as are famous all over the world as the Munich stories, has just celebrated his eightieth birthday at Frankfurt, his native town, where for many years he has been at the head of the lunatic asylum. His nursery rhymes have gone through 12 editions, and are translated into every European language.

While George Alder, a Terriod, Trout Rollins and Ambrose Huer, bird hunters, were preparing breakfast for their lugger at Lost Island, La., during a thunder storm, a day or two ago, the vessel was struck by lightning, the mast and deck being torn to pieces. Hiner was instantly killed, and the other two were rendered unconscious, but were restored. Their bodies are covered with bruises and the men are very weak.

A motion for a new trial in the case of John W. Miller, who was convicted, June 22, in the Circuit Court, at Mexico, Mo., for the murder of Samuel Apgar, about a year ago, was argued Wednesday at St. Louis and denied. Judge Hughes then sentenced Miller to be hanged on August 23, and gave George Mortimer, an accomplice of Miller's, and who pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, 50 years in the Penitentiary.

The Department of State at Washington has been informed by the United States Consul at Auckland, New Zealand, that the Island of Suvarov in the Pacific Ocean has been annexed by the British crown, the commander of the war ship Rapid having hoisted the British flag on that island May 1 last. This is slow news for the Department, as it was known in America three weeks ago.

Several engineers are now at Tampico, Mexico, to settle the question as to what plan is to be followed for canalization. It is reported that the commencement of this important work is merely a question of a few months. It is said the work is contracted for by a New-Orleans engineering firm to which the famous Captain Eads belonged.

A wonderful snake story comes from Murmurbarr, in New South Wales. A mau killed a large black snake, and, seeing that he had a peculiar shape, he kept it in the body. Inside was a bullock's horn, out of which popped a rat, still alive. It is supposed that the snake chased the rat into the horn, and, being unable to dislodge it, swallowed rat and horn together.

Ever since she emerged from the Alameda County Jail Mrs. Sarah Althea Hill-Sharon-Terry has hidden herself from public gaze, and on her husband's ranch at Fresno. Now she proposes to lecture throughout the State, having made a contract with Charles MacGee, who three years ago tried to get her to go on the stage.

Bradstreet reports the number of failures in the United States during the past six months at $91,400,000, an increase of 664 over the corresponding period of last year. Total liabilities were $67,411,711, against $64,939,722 in the first six months of 1888; total assets, $38,802,940, against $34,834,746.

She is also an expert in the art of embroidery in both white and colors, and is as industrious as many a woman of limited means.

David S. Wise, a farmer, aged 50 years, was struck dead by lightning while riding on a hay rack near Magador, Summit County, Ohio, on Wednesday. The lightning struck at the time, and the lightning came from a very small cloud. Two sons of Mr. Wise, riding on the rack with him, were knocked insensible, as was also a woman in a house near by. The horse he was driving was killed by the same bolt.

Dr. Hoffman, the author of "Straw-wedder," a Slovenly Peter, as he is called, is a native of England, a workman, as are famous all over the world as the Munich stories, has just celebrated his eightieth birthday at Frankfurt, his native town, where for many years he has been at the head of the lunatic asylum. His nursery rhymes have gone through 12 editions, and are translated into every European language.

While George Alder, a Terriod, Trout Rollins and Ambrose Huer, bird hunters, were preparing breakfast for their lugger at Lost Island, La., during a thunder storm, a day or two ago, the vessel was struck by lightning, the mast and deck being torn to pieces. Hiner was instantly killed, and the other two were rendered unconscious, but were restored. Their bodies are covered with bruises and the men are very weak.

A motion for a new trial in the case of John W. Miller, who was convicted, June 22, in the Circuit Court, at Mexico, Mo., for the murder of Samuel Apgar, about a year ago, was argued Wednesday at St. Louis and denied. Judge Hughes then sentenced Miller to be hanged on August 23, and gave George Mortimer, an accomplice of Miller's, and who pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, 50 years in the Penitentiary.

The Department of State at Washington has been informed by the United States Consul at Auckland, New Zealand, that the Island of Suvarov in the Pacific Ocean has been annexed by the British crown, the commander of the war ship Rapid having hoisted the British flag on that island May 1 last. This is slow news for the Department, as it was known in America three weeks ago.

Several engineers are now at Tampico, Mexico, to settle the question as to what plan is to be followed for canalization. It is reported that the commencement of this important work is merely a question of a few months. It is said the work is contracted for by a New-Orleans engineering firm to which the famous Captain Eads belonged.

A wonderful snake story comes from Murmurbarr, in New South Wales. A mau killed a large black snake, and, seeing that he had a peculiar shape, he kept it in the body. Inside was a bullock's horn, out of which popped a rat, still alive. It is supposed that the snake chased the rat into the horn, and, being unable to dislodge it, swallowed rat and horn together.

Ever since she emerged from the Alameda County Jail Mrs. Sarah Althea Hill-Sharon-Terry has hidden herself from public gaze, and on her husband's ranch at Fresno. Now she proposes to lecture throughout the State, having made a contract with Charles MacGee, who three years ago tried to get her to go on the stage.

Bradstreet reports the number of failures in the United States during the past six months at $91,400,000, an increase of 664 over the corresponding period of last year. Total liabilities were $67,411,711, against $64,939,722 in the first six months of 1888; total assets, $38,802,940, against $34,834,746.

A Large Salmon Caught in the Severn—Russia and the European Powers—One of Queen Victoria's Favourite Fish—The United States—An Epidemic of Insanity.

The superior quality of the flour made from wheat grown in the high latitudes of the Northwest is quite well known, but it is perhaps not so generally known that the northern countries of the world where the difficulties surrounding agriculture are great, both in the way of production and access to markets, are the only countries producing wheat of the highest quality. It has been found to be a necessity by millers everywhere who aim to produce first-class flour to add to the softer wheats produced in temperate and southern latitudes a large proportion of the harder wheats grown in northern countries, and it is said that the larger proportion of hard wheat used the stronger and better will be the flour. Most of the hard wheats which find their way to the markets of the world, says Director Saunders, of the Dominion experimental farms, Ottawa, Canada, are the growth of the northern plains of Russia, the northern United States and the north-west provinces of Canada. For two years past a variety grown in Russia, near Lake Ladoga, north of St. Petersburg, has been the subject of cultivation at different points in the Dominion, with the view of testing its fertility and earliness in ripening as compared with the Red Fife, the present standard variety.

Queen Victoria is in the habit of keeping rooms which have been occupied by deceased relatives locked up. The apartments at Broomfield House, the residence of the Queen, died more than 70 years ago are closed, and nobody is allowed to use them. Prince Albert's apartments at Windsor, Osborne, and Balmoral are all kept precisely as they were when he was alive; and on the wall of the room in which he died there is a tablet, with an inscription recording the fact that "this apartment was the scene of his demise." John Brown's rooms at Windsor have also been closed since his death and marked with a large brass sign with an inscription commemorating his virtues and deploring his loss.

A recent driving competition at the Ranch club brought out twelve coaches. The prize for the best perfect turn-out—coach, horses and harness—was won by Sir Sayward Crossley. Then there was a trial over a specially prepared course, where various obstacles were placed to test the powers of the driver. There were a set of posts with bottles on the top, which would fall at the slightest touch. A low archway and a narrow street were represented by the scenery of the trip. Captain Pryce Hamilton won, going over the course not only on a trot, but at a gallop.

The alarm which was sounded at Vienna a few weeks ago has succumbed to a reaction, and the alarmists newspapers declare that the time has not yet come for Russia to raise the Eastern question. The opinion is that the tension which has existed in Europe for some years past has of late been grossly exaggerated. The key to the situation is whether Russia is prepared to bring the Eastern question to an issue. In the opinion of competent judges it is not.

A queer trout story comes from Kineo. A party of fishermen were angling from a row-boat, and one of their number was feeling for trout when, in the clear water, a larger, 10-pounder was seen to start, open-mouthed, after the small fish. The little fellow forsook the bait and swam round and round the boat, hotly pursued by the big fish. When two or three circles had been made, and both fish were nearing the top of the water, a man in the stern of the boat suddenly took his dip net in and neatly scooped the 10-pounder out.

Dr. Jesse Myer, as he pointed to some handsome shade trees in front of his house the other day, said: "I like a nice shade tree. Shade trees when in full foliage are a great protection from heat and flames. In 1847 Kingston was saved from a terrible conflagration if not from total destruction by shade trees. The tannery of Tobias VanBuren stood on Green, near the head of St. James street. One day when there was a strong wind, the building caught fire and burned fiercely. Everything was dry as bone. Burning pieces of wood and shingles were carried over the whole village. They fell on the building on the corner of North Front street and Clinton-avenue on the opposite side of the street. The First Reformed Church was on fire. Burning shingles were found by Jonathan Schoonmaker at his place across the Exopus Creek, now part of the town of Ulster. It required the utmost exertion on the part of the inhabitants to save the place. It would have been destroyed in spite of all efforts had it not been for a number of large linden trees which stood in front of the house of Colonel VanBuren across the street from the tannery. These trees were heavily covered with foliage and were very tall. They acted as a barrier to the flames. Had they not been there the fire would have burned VanBuren's house and then made a clean sweep across the village."

Some folks here, particularly boys, have their hair cut in what is familiarly called the "dead rabbit" style, with the advent of summer. A "dead rabbit" can best be described by saying that the hair is cropped so close to the skull that the splinters that are left cannot be taken hold of by a pair of pincers. This forenoon a merchant, who rubbed his hand over the "dead rabbit" of a boy, said: "I remember how mortified I felt when I had my hair cut in that manner. It was 25 years ago, when the practice did not prevail so largely as at present. I had my hair cut so close that my pate looked as though it had been sandpapered. I was considered a 'dead rabbit' by the boys. I received a letter from a favorite cousin to come to the Metropolitan and act as groomsmen at his wedding. I went, and you can imagine my feelings when I marched to the altar and saw the bride looking like an inflated bladder, an object of attention for a hundred pairs of feminine eyes. When the officiating clergyman was about to pronounce the words that would make the couple one, he said: 'I, the minister, who have seen the church the perspiration was pouring down my face, never have had a 'dead rabbit' cut since that time.'"

Once upon a time a visitor to a Sunday School in this city called one of a class of boys to relate the story of Moses. One little fellow, who was considerably mixed in his scriptural knowledge, replied that he could, and he got off the following: "Moses was born in an ark of bulrushes. He was floating upon the water one day, when an alligator appeared, and the alligator opened its mouth and said unto Moses: 'Moses, almost though persuaded me to become a Christian, and Moses said unto the alligator, 'Thou art the man.'"

Recently a traveling evangelist addressed a crowd of boatmen "Up-the-dock." He quoted the following from a well known author: "To reach the port of Heaven we must sail sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it; but we must sail and not drift nor lie at anchor." "See here, boys," said a lank canaller, "that's all right as far as it goes, but how is a feller to sail when there's a dead cat in the mules down sick, with the 'cat' not to 'cut out' too fast a pace at the start."

The "Home Co-operative Savings and Loan Association of Rondout" was incorporated and filed its certificate in the Secretary of State's office at Albany to-day. The number of shares of stock which the Association may issue is limited to $1,000. The incorporators are:

L. J. Dubois, A. E. Benson, R. W. Anderson, A. H. Mambert, E. G. Adams, W. B. Terwilliger, P. A. Condit, Jr., J. C. Mott, Isaac C. Butler, Daniel Halloran, Ralph Terwilliger, J. A. Vignes, Frederick Stephan, Jr., William Winter, Jr., Edward Dreyfus and William Bernbach.

The following outings have been arranged: Sunday School, First Reformed Church, Arkville, July 10; Clinton-Avenue M. E. Sunday School, Hampton-on-the-Hudson, July 17; cigar factory employees, Hudson River, July 20; A. M. E. Zion Church, Iona Island, Tuesday, July 30; Hauck Gymnasium Club, picnic, O'Reilly's Grove, August 1.

Frank Bullen is a Jersey City small boy who is spending his vacation at the home of his grandfather here. Last night his grandfather looked at the sky and said: "Going to have more rain, Frank?" "If we don't we'll have a long drought, grandpa," sagely replied the little Jerseyman.

An astronomer says that from to-day the sun spot, which for two weeks past has stirred scientists, will not be visible for 12 days. He adds: "During the last large spot, in 1885 storms happened all over the country and telegraphic communication was suspended." Poughkeepsie people have not yet seen the spot.

One of the Fourth of July inventions is a "pistol" which fires an arrow. On the end of the arrow is what the small boy calls a "rubber sucker." When the arrow strikes an object it fastens itself, to the great delight of the small boy.

The foolishness of ringing fire bells when there is no fire was demonstrated at about 2 o'clock on Thursday morning down-town. A member of a hose company sent out the alarm.

A meeting of the Supervisors and Visitors of the local Branch of the Evangelical Alliance will be held in the chapel of the First Reformed Church on Monday evening.

The following notice has been posted at the Ulster County Clerk's office: "Office hours 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Saturdays closed at 12 M. Office closed on legal holidays."

Improvements are being made in the vicinity of the Fair-Street Station of the Ulster & Delaware Railroad. Several new buildings have been erected.

Charles Merritt, of this City, says that while he is at Pine Bush, one day recently rain fell in torrents. Water was nearly a foot in depth on level ground.

The condition of sidewalks in portions of this City is bad. Yesterday neglected walks were covered with water.

Local weather prophets have "gone out of business." The weather of late has been too much for them.

Revolvers in the hands of boys are dangerous weapons. This was exemplified here yesterday.

A party of young people of this City were entertained at the Overlook Mountain House yesterday.

General Humidity enjoyed the celebration. He has been in town all week.

The glimpses of sunshine to-day were hailed with joy by invalids.

A lady here has a double calla lily growing in her house.

Cheap potatoes are among the probabilities the coming fall.

Fair, cool water promised in this vicinity on Saturday.

It seems as if there were two Sundays this week.

FOURTH OF JULY ACCIDENTS HERE.

Small Boys, who Celebrated Not Wisely, and Are Now in Doctors' Care.

Walter Garrison is a 14-year-old boy, who lives on the Kingston Point Road. Yesterday he loaded a "cannon" made from an old gas pipe. The "cannon" exploded prematurely. The pipe struck young Garrison on the right groin, and plunging under his leg in a downward course made a hole in his leg. The boy is in a precarious condition.

While a 15-year-old boy named Arthur Pve was handling a revolver on John-street the pistol was discharged, and a 32 calibre ball struck Matthew Rieky, aged 14 years, and buried itself in the fleshy part of the upper portion of his left leg.

A young man named Flemming, while watching companions practice at a target on Hunter-street, was shot in his right hand. The ball entered the wrist and plunging through the flesh imbedded itself at the base of the little finger.

Peter Post, a Rifton farmer, while celebrating the Fourth of July, the sharp instrument cut his left wrist to the bone, severing arteries.

THE DEATH RECORD IN THIS CITY.
Accounts of Recent Deaths and Funerals—Deaths in Other Places.

The body of Miss Frances Hageman, the young woman who died suddenly at the residence of George Goeller, Pierpont-street, on Wednesday night, was taken to Orange, N. J., yesterday.

Lazarus Hopper, an old soldier, aged 83 years, died on Wednesday. The funeral was held this forenoon. The body was interred at West Park.

Mrs. Ira Joy, aged 23, died yesterday. The funeral will be held from the Elmendorf Street Presbyterian Church to-morrow afternoon.

The funeral of Daniel Egan, aged 24 years, of Wilbur, took place this forenoon from St. Mary's Catholic Church.

DEATHS ELSEWHERE.

Mrs. George L. Woolsey, a daughter of Floyd S. McKissey, of Gardiner, Ulster County, died recently at Nebraska City, Neb., after a long illness.

Edward S. Vail, brother of Mrs. T. R. Westbrook, of this City, died at New-Brunswick, N. J., on Tuesday.

Peter DuBois died at the residence of his daughter in Hoboken a few days ago.

That Game of Ball Yesterday—Horse and Bicycle Races Off, Etc.

One of the closest games of ball here this season was that played yesterday afternoon on the Union-avenue grounds in the presence of 400 people. The Kings and the Grand Central, of the Railroad League, were the contesting clubs, and so evenly were they matched that it required 11 innings to settle the game, which went in favor of the Grand Central by a score of 10 to 7. There were many good plays made.

It is said the baseball nine of the Actors' Athletic Association will travel up the Hudson River soon and play ball games with local nines.

The horse and bicycle races announced to take place on the Kingston Driving Park yesterday were declared off on account of the rain.

The members of the Rondout Canoe Club will hold a meeting at their boat-house on Saturday night.

At Hudson yesterday the Hudsons defeated the West Shores of this City by a score of 18 to 5.

Nyack yachtmen will go on a cruise in Eastern waters on the Deatrice, starting on July 27.

Wheels and Wheelmen Here.
 A lady asks: "Which is the best way for a lady to mount a bicycle?" Mounting is accomplished while the machine is standing still, from either side, and in front of the saddle, by simply stepping one foot over the horizontal reach and placing it on the pedal, which stands horizontal with the reach, and transferring the weight of the body from the foot on the ground to the one on the pedal, which drives the pedal down and carries the saddle forward to the rider, who then transfers her weight from the pedal to the saddle.

To develop a good pace ride a certain number of miles each day in a given time then increase the pace gradually, taking care, however, not to "cut out" too fast a pace at the start.

A race between two wheelmen is being arranged, to take place next week. One of the contestants will ride a safety; the other an ordinary, or "big wheel."

A few wheelmen were on Union-avenue yesterday, but the pleasure did not compensate them for the hard work.

Eight miles in a three-minute pace without a dismount is the record of a local wheelman, nearly 50 years old.

Care should be taken by riders of bicycles this changeable weather in the matter of dress.

It is astonishing how glibly small boys talk of ball-beatings, rear-drivers, tangent spokes, etc.

Bicycle runs were declared off on July 4, owing to the bad condition of roads.

Long Shore and Inland.
 The tax-payers of New-Rochelle, at a special election held on Tuesday evening, voted an appropriation of $2,000 for equipping the fire department and incidental expenses, and $3,000 for grading sidewalks. The proposition to raise $10,000 for repairing and improving the streets of the village was defeated.

Coroner Matthews began the inquest yesterday on the death of John Morris, who was shot in the head on Saturday night by August Hanscht, a saloon-keeper at White Plains.

One William H. Smith who has been a musician at West Point deserted July 4. A reward of $30 is offered for his arrest.

The Board of Trustees at Sing Sing have changed the name of Mott-street to Maple-place.

The Saengerfest of the Troy Maennerchor will be held on July 21, 22 and 23.

In Recorder's Court To-day.
 William Plough, charged with stealing a watch from a man named Joseph Brouner, was arraigned this forenoon. Owing to the prisoner's youth the Recorder dealt leniently with him. He was fined $10. Brouner recovered his watch.

Antonio Scroffey and Rauser Kriesch, Italians, for being intoxicated were fined $5 each.

Robert VanWagoner, a native of Dutchess County, "drunk," fined $5.

Charles Wiley, of Newburgh, intoxicated, fined $5.

An officer spoke in Wiley's behalf.

The next proceeds of the morning's business were $27.50.

In the Religious Field.
 Mrs. M. E. Wright, of South-Dakota, made an address in the Congregational Church, on Wednesday evening, on "Frontier Work."

The postponed "Thursday evening" prayer meeting of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church will be held this evening.

Quarterly M. E. Conference was held at Gates Hill, Schoharie County, yesterday, by Elder Alfred Coons.

Journalistic.
 Enterprise was shown by the New-Paltz Times in the matter of reporting the commencement exercises of the State Normal School there.

Louis Kampner, of New-York City, was to-day elected President of the National Amateur Press Association, now in session in Sold.

Sold Under the Hammer Here To-day.
 Sheriff Dill sold at the Court House to-day a house and lot, owned by Edgar and Hannah Mills, at Pine Hill, Ulster County, by virtue of an execution of $239 in favor of Aaron Elling. The property was struck off to Elling.

An Orange County Post-Office Robbed.
 The Post-Office at Coldenham was robbed of letters and papers last night.

To Meet this Evening.
 Common Council, Alms Commissioners.

THE 4TH DULY OBSERVED

IN THIS CITY, 'LONG SHORE AND AT MANY POINTS INLAND.

Down-town Firemen Paraded at Hudson—John J. Linson Spoke in a Scholastic County Village—Orations at a Score or More of Places—Col. Fellows at Newburgh.

Independence Day passed quietly in this City and vicinity. No fires occurred. Several serious accidents are reported. The members of Weiner Hose Company were pleasantly entertained in Hudson. They arrived there at about 10:20 o'clock. They were met at the dock by Haysradt Hose Company, No. 8, and escorted to that organization's house. The parade, which was to have taken place at 11 o'clock, was postponed until the afternoon on account of rain. As was expected, the handsome hose carriage of the home organization was the finest in the parade and attracted much attention. The other organizations in line were the Twenty-Third Separate Company, A. M. Osborn Hose Company, Harper W. Rogers Hose Company, Citizens' Hose Company, Washington Hose Company, Mackawomac Engine Company, C. H. Evans Hook and Ladder Company, Rescue Hook and Ladder Company, Phoenix Hose Company, Engine Company, J. W. Haysradt Hose Company, a cavalcade of horsemen, Business Men's Industrial Exhibition and nine brass bands and drum corps.

The parade was witnessed by crowds of people. After the parade was dismissed the visitors were entertained. This City was reached at about 10:30 o'clock last night. The excursion of the Young Catholic Literary Association to West Point was largely attended. The steambot Mary Howell carried the excursionists. On the up trip an opportunity was afforded to view the displays of fireworks on the east and west shores of the Hudson River. The excursion to Stamford was not largely attended.

In the evening a crowd gathered at Ponckhookie to witness a display of fireworks. Under the management of patriotic citizens of that locality. The display was given on the grounds of the Newark Lime & Cement Company, a short distance north-west of the Children's Church. The proceedings were enhanced by the presence of a brass band. The display of fireworks was creditable.

The day was generally observed in Ulster County despite the heavy rain. At Highland, exercises were held in Thompson's Grove. The Declaration of Independence was read. The clergy of the village participated. The oration was by Ira Shaffer, Music by LeFever Post Band. The ladies of the M. E. Church held a festival on the church grounds. A celebration was held in Hiram Day's grove at New-Paltz, under the auspices of the members of the New-Paltz Brass Band. The Knights of Labor at Higu Falls held a festival and dance at their park in that village. At Phenicia a celebration was held on the M. E. Church grounds. An oration was delivered by the Rev. J. W. Bohlman. There were games of ball during the day and fireworks in the evening. At Modena the church bells were rung at sunrise. The oration was by the Rev. J. W. Mitchell. The members of the First Reformed Church Sunday School gave a lawn party in the afternoon and evening. At Ellenville the ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance Union served dinner and tea to the public. Interesting exercises were held at Kromville. Music was furnished by the Hartz River Cornet Band. A picnic was held in a grove at Gardiner, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. A largely attended picnic and festival was held at the grove in West Shokan under the auspices of the members of the Baptist Church. An old-time celebration was held in Kerhonkson. At Rosendale a festival was held on the Baptist Church grounds. The Gardner base ball nine played a game with the Bruynswicks in the afternoon. At Woodstock an oration was delivered in the afternoon by the Rev. E. C. Deming. Japanese day fireworks were displayed in the afternoon, and a pyrotechnic display in the evening. A ball match between beneficiaries and benefactors was played at Rosendale Plains in the forenoon. In the afternoon there was a shooting match with glass balls.

The day was duly observed at points along the Hudson River and inland. At Albany there was a military parade in the forenoon, a large display of fireworks and a display of fireworks in the evening. At Newburgh church bells were rung, cannon were fired at Washington's headquarters, and everything wore a holiday appearance. In the afternoon the indoor exercises took place at the Academy of Music. The nearly all the clergymen in the City occupied seats upon the stage, where were also Senators Peter Ward, Mayor B. B. Odell, Judge William Fullerton, President Belknap, and other members of the Board of Education. All of the Aldermen, and members of other public Boards. In the audience, which filled the handsome edifice, were many of the leading ladies of that City.

The exercises consisted of prayer by the Rev. Octavius Applegate, D. D., singing of patriotic songs by a quartette, reading of the Declaration, patriotic music by a large orchestra, and an oration by Colonel John R. Fellows. Ex-Mayor McCroskey presided. The sense of the occasion was District Attorney Fellows's oration. At Middleburgh, Scholastic County, there was an old-time celebration. The Declaration of Independence was read by George L. Danforth, son of ex-Judge P. S. Danforth.

An oration was delivered by State Senator John J. Linson, of this City. At Jeffersonville, Sullivan County, the day was ushered in with cannon firing. During the day a series of athletic games and a display of fireworks in the evening. The celebration at Montgomery was in charge of the Fire Department. There were athletic sports, a balloon ascension and a display of fireworks in the evening. At Cairo there were trotting races, sack races, wheelbarrow races, and a graced pig race. There were ball games and day fireworks. Horse trotting was an attraction at Walton. At Andes there were a National salute of 100 guns at sunrise, a firemen's race, tug of war, races of various kinds, and a parade of the Fire Department. A celebration was held on the grounds of the Baptist Church, Pine Plains. A hop was given in the evening at Hunter by Sons of Veterans. The members of the Germantown Cornet Band made an excursion to Poughkeepsie. A festival was held in the New Catholic Hall at Barrytown in the afternoon and evening. The circuit trotting races at Poughkeepsie attracted many people. Many people were carried up and down the Hudson River by the steamboats Jacob H. Tremper and M. Martin. There were trotting races at Cornwall. At Staatsburgh there was a parade, athletic sports and a base ball game between the New-Hamburg and Staatsburgh clubs. At Copake Lake there were running races and a sack race. At Pleasant Valley, Dutchess County, exercises were held under the auspices of the members of the M. E. Church. An oration was delivered by the Rev. W. F. Hatfield, of Poughkeepsie.

CITY HAPPENINGS AND CHAT

BITS OF NEWS, STORIES AND SOME HUMOR AND GOSSIP.

Days of Summer Recreation—Large Rainfall
Or Story—Concerning "Dead Rabbits"—A
Youngster Tells About Moses—A Doctor's
Views About Shade Trees—Deductions.

Dr. Jesse Meyer, as he pointed to some handsome shade trees in front of his house the other day, said: "I like a nice shade tree. Shade trees when in full foliage are a great protection from heat and flames. In 1847 Kingston was saved from a terrible conflagration if not from total destruction by shade trees. The tannery of Tobias VanBuren stood on Green, near the head of St. James street. One day when there was a strong wind the building caught fire and burned fiercely. Everything was dry as bone. Burning pieces of wood and shingles were carried over the whole village. They fell on the building on the corner of North Front street and Clinton-avenue on the opposite side of the street. The First Reformed Church was on fire. Burning shingles were found by Jonathan Schoonmaker at his place across the Exopus Creek, now part of the town of Ulster. It required the utmost exertion on the part of the inhabitants to save the place. It would have been destroyed in spite of all efforts had it not been for a number of large linden trees which stood in front of the house of Colonel VanBuren across the street from the tannery. These trees were heavily covered with foliage and were very tall. They acted as a barrier to the flames. Had they not been there the fire would have burned VanBuren's house and then made a clean sweep across the village."

Some folks here, particularly boys, have their hair cut in what is familiarly called the "dead rabbit" style, with the advent of summer. A "dead rabbit" can best be described by saying that the hair is cropped so close to the skull that the splinters that are left cannot be taken hold of by a pair of pliers. This forenoon a merchant, who rubbed his hand over the "dead rabbit" rate of a boy, said: "I remember how mortified I felt when I had my hair cut in this manner. It was 25 years ago, when the practice did not prevail so largely as at present. I had my hair cut so close that my pate looked as though it had been sandpapered. I looked like 'Bill Nye.' The day after the shearing I received a letter from a favorite cousin to come to the Metropolis and act as groomsmen at his wedding. I went, and you can imagine my feelings when I marched up the aisle to the altar, my head looking like an inflated bladder, an object of attention for a hundred pairs of feminine eyes. When the officiating clergyman was about to pronounce the words that would make the couple one a horse fly lit on the top of my cranium and began biting. I stood it as long as I could, when I raised my hand and slapped it on my head, making a noise like the bursting of a paper bag. This incident came near upsetting the equilibrium of the minister. When I left the church the perspiration was pouring down my face. I never have had a 'dead rabbit' cut since that time."

Once upon a time a visitor to a Sunday School in this city asked which one of a class of boys could relate the story of Moses' life. One little fellow, who was considerably mixed in his scriptural knowledge, replied that he could, and he got off the following: "Moses was born in an ark of bullrushes. He was floating upon the water one day, when an alligator appeared unto him, and the alligator opened his mouth and said unto Moses: 'Moses, although thou seemest me to be a Christian, and Moses said unto the alligator, 'Thou art the man.'"

Recently a traveling evangelist addressed a crowd of boatmen "Up the dock." He quoted the following from a well known author: "To reach the port of Heaven we must sail sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it; but we must sail and not drift nor lie at anchor." "See here, boys," said a leek canner, "that's all right as far as it goes, but how is a fellow to sail when there's a dead calm on the mules down sick with the epidemic?" The average canner is nothing if not intensely practical.

The "Home Co-operative Savings and Loan Association" of this city, which was incorporated and filed its certificate in the Secretary of State's office at Albany to-day. The number of shares of stock which the Association may issue is limited to 1,000. The incorporators are:

L. J. Dubois, A. E. Benson, R. W. Anderson, A. H. Munnell, E. G. Adams, W. B. Terwilliger, J. C. Smith, J. G. Mould, James B. Butting, Daniel Halloran, Ralph P. Brown, Frederick Seiphan, Jr., William Winter, Jr., Edward Jeffrey and William Berenbach.

The following outings have been arranged: Sunday School, First Reformed Church, Arkville, July 10; Clinton-Avenue M. E. Sunday School, Hampton-on-the-Hudson, July 17; cigar factory employees, Hudson River, July 29; A. M. E. Zion Church, Long Island, Tuesday, July 30; Huxley Gymnasium Club, picnic, O'Reilly's Grove, August 1.

Frank Bullen is a Jersey City small boy who is spending his vacation at the home of his grandfather here. Last night his grandfather looked at the sky and said: "Going to have more rain, Frank?" "If we don't we'll have a long drought, grandpa," sagely replied the little Jerseyman.

An astronomer says that from to-day the sun spot, which for two weeks past has stirred scientists, will not be visible for 12 days. He adds: "During the last large spot, in 1885 storms happened all over the country and telegraphic communication was suspended." Poughkeepsie people have not yet seen the spot.

One of the Fourth of July inventions is a "pistol" which fires an arrow. On the end of the arrow is what the small boy calls a "rubber sucker." When the arrow strikes an object it fastens itself, to the great delight of the small boy.

The foolishness of ringing fire bells when there is no fire was demonstrated at about 2 o'clock on Thursday morning down town. A member of a hose company sent out the alarm.

A meeting of the Supervisors and Visitors of the Local Branch of the Evangelical Alliance will be held in the chapel of the First Reformed Church on Monday evening.

The following notice has been posted at the Ulster County Clerk's office: "Office hours 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Saturdays close at 12 M. Office closed on legal holidays."

Improvements are being made in the vicinity of the Post-Office and the Evangelical Alliance. Several new buildings have been erected.

Charles Morrill, of this city, says that while he was at Pine Bush one day recently rain fell in torrents. Water was nearly a foot in depth on level ground.

The condition of sidewalks in portions of this city is bad. Yesterday neglected walks were covered with water.

Local weather prophets have "gone out of business." The weather of late has been too much for them.

Revolvers in the hands of boys are dangerous weapons. This was exemplified here yesterday.

A party of young people of this city were entertained at the Overlook Mountain House yesterday.

FOURTH OF JULY ACCIDENTS HERE.

Small Boys, who Celebrated Not Wisely, and Are Now in Doctors' Care.
 Walter Garrison is a four-year-old boy, who lives on the Kingston Point Road. Yesterday he loaded a "cannon" made from an old gas pipe. The "cannon" exploded prematurely. The pipe struck young Garrison on the right groin, and ploughing around his leg in a downward course made a hole in his leg. The boy is in a precarious condition.

While a 15-year-old boy named Arthur Pve was handling a revolver on John-street the pistol was discharged, and a 32-caliber ball struck Matthew Hickey, aged 14 years, and buried itself in the fleshy part of the upper portion of his left leg.

A young man named Flemming, while watching companions practice at a target on Hunter-street, was shot in his right hand. The ball entered the wrist and ploughing through the flesh imbedded itself at the base of the little finger.

Peter Post, a Rifton farmer, while celebrating, fell on a sythe. The sharp instrument cut his left wrist to the bone, severing arteries.

THE DEATH RECORD IN THIS CITY.

Accounts of Recent Deaths and Funerals—Deaths in Other Places.

The body of Miss Frances Hageman, the young woman who died suddenly at the residence of George Goeller, Pierpoint-street, on Wednesday night, was taken to Orange, N. J., yesterday.

Lazarus Hopper, an old soldier, aged 83 years, died on Wednesday. The funeral was held this forenoon. The body was interred at West Park.

Mrs. Ira Joy, aged 23, died yesterday. The funeral will be held from the Elmendorf-St. Presbyterian Church to-morrow afternoon.

The funeral of Daniel Egan, aged 24 years, of Wilbur, took place this forenoon from St. Mary's Catholic Church.

DEATHS ELSEWHERE.

Mrs. George L. Woolsey, a daughter of Floyd S. McKinstry, of Gardiner, Ulster County, died recently at Nebraska City, Neb., after a long illness.

Edward S. Vail, brother of Mrs. T. R. Westbrook, of this city, died at New-Brunswick, N. J., on Tuesday.

Peter Dubois died at the residence of his daughter in Hoboken a few days ago.

THE VICINITY SPORTING NEWS.

That Game of Ball Yesterday—Horse and Bicycle Races.

One of the closest games of ball here this season was that played yesterday afternoon on the Union-avenue grounds in the presence of 400 people. The Kingston and the Grand Central, of the Railroad League, were the contending clubs, and so evenly were they matched that it required 11 innings to settle the game, which went in favor of the Grand Central by a score of 10 to 7. There were many good plays made.

It is said the baseball nine of the Actors' Athletic Association will travel up the Hudson River soon and play ball games with local nines.

The horse and bicycle races announced to take place on the Kingston Driving Park yesterday were declared off on account of the rain.

The members of the Rondout Canoe Club will hold a meeting at their boat-house on Saturday night.

At Hudson yesterday the Hudsons defeated the West Shore of this city by a score of 18 to 5.

Nyack yachtsmen will go on a cruise in Eastern waters on the Beatrice, starting on July 27.

WHEELS AND WHEELMEN HERE.

A lady asks: "Which is the best way for a lady to mount a bicycle?" Mounting is accomplished while the machine is standing still, from either side, and in front of the saddle, by simply stepping one foot over the low horizontal reach and placing it on the pedal, which stands horizontal with the reach, and transferring the weight of the body from the foot on the ground to the one on the pedal, which drives the pedal down and carries the saddle forward to the rider, who then transfers her weight from the pedal to the saddle.

To develop a good pace ride a certain number of miles each day in a given time then increase the pace gradually, taking care, however, not to "cut out" too fast a pace at the start.

A race between two wheelmen is being arranged, to take place next week. One of the contestants will ride a safety; the other an ordinary, or "big wheel."

A few wheelmen were on Union-avenue yesterday, but the pleasure did not compensate them for the hard work.

Eight miles at a three-minute pace without a dismount is the record of a local wheelman, nearly 50 years old.

Care should be taken by riders of bicycles this changeable weather in the matter of dress.

It is astonishing how glibly small boys talk of ball-bearings, rear-drivers, tangent spokes, etc.

Bicycle runs were declared off on July 4, owing to the bad condition of roads.

Long Shore and Island.

The tax-payers of New-Rochelle at a special election held on Tuesday evening, voted an appropriation of $2,000 for equipping the fire department and incidental expenses, and $3,000 for grading sidewalks. The proposition to raise $10,000 for repairing and improving the streets of the village was defeated.

Coroner Matthews began the inquest yesterday on the death of John Morrissey, who was shot in the head on Saturday night by August Henschel, a saloon-keeper at White Plains.

One William H. Smith, who has been a musician at West Point deserted July 4. A reward of $30 is offered for his arrest.

The Board of Trustees at Sing Sing have changed the name of Mott-street to Maple-avenue.

The Saengerfest of the Troy Maennerchor will be held on July 21, 22 and 23.

In Recorder's Court To-day.
 William Plough, charged with stealing a watch from a man named Joseph Brouner, was arraigned this forenoon. Owing to the prisoner's youth the Recorder dealt leniently with him. He was fined $10. Brouner recovered his watch.

Antonio Scordery and Eusebio Kriech, Italians, for being intoxicated were fined $5 each.
 Robert Van Wageningen, a native of Dutchess County, "drunk," fined $5.

Charles Wiley, of Newburgh, intoxicated, fined $25.
 An officer spoke in Wiley's behalf.
 The net proceeds of the morning's business were $27.50.

In the Religious Field.
 Mrs. M. E. Wright, of South-Dakota, made an address in the Congregational Church, Saugerties, on Wednesday evening, on "Frontier Work."

The postponed "Thursday evening" prayer meeting of the Warts-Street Baptist Church will be held this evening.

Quarterly M. E. Conference was held at Gates Hill, Schoharie County, yesterday, by Elder Alfred Coombs.

Sold Under the Hammer Here To-day.
 Sheriff Dill sold at the Court House to-day a house and lot, owned by Edgar and Hannah Mills, at Pine Hill, Ulster County, by virtue of an execution of $239 in favor of Aaron Elting. The property was struck off to Elting.

An Orange County Post-Office Robbed.
 The Post-Office at Baldwinsville was robbed of letters and papers last night.

To Meet this Evening.
 Common Council, Alms Commissioners.

The display of fireworks was creditable.

The day was generally observed in Ulster County despite the heavy rain. At Highland, exercises were held in Thompson's Grove. The Declaration of Independence was read. The clergy of the village participated. The oration was by the Ira Shaffer, Music by LeFever Post Band. The ladies of the M. E. Church held a festival on the church grounds. A celebration was held in Hiram Dey's grove at New-Paltz, under the auspices of the members of the New-Paltz Brass Band. The Knights of Labor at High Falls held a festival and dance at their point in that village. At Phenicia a celebration was held on the M. E. Church grounds. An oration was delivered by the Rev. J. W. Bohlman. There were games of skill during the day and the fireworks in the evening. Modena the church bells were rung at sunrise. The oration was by the Rev. J. W. Mitchell. The members of the Port-Ewen Reformed Church Sunday School gave a lawn party in the afternoon and evening. At Ellenville the ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance Union served dinner and tea to the public. Interesting exercises were held at Kromville. Music by the furnished church bells were rung. Cornet Band. A picnic was held in a grove at Gardiner, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. A largely attended picnic and festival was held at the grove in West Shokan under the auspices of the members of the Baptist Church. An old-time celebration, was held in Kerhonkson. At Rosendale a festival was held on the Baptist Church grounds. The Gardner base ball team played a game with the Bruggsville team in the afternoon. At Woodstock an oration was delivered in the afternoon by the Rev. E. C. Deming. Japanese day fireworks were displayed in the afternoon, and a pyrotechnic display in the evening. A ball match between bachelors and benedicts was played at Rosendale Plains in the forenoon. In the afternoon there was a shooting match with glass balls. The day was duly observed at points along the Hudson River and inland. At Albany there was a military parade in the forenoon, a regatta in the afternoon and a display of fireworks in the evening. At Newburgh the church bells were rung. Cannon were fired at Washington's headquarters, and everything wore a holiday appearance. In the afternoon the indoor exercises took place at the Academy of Music. Nearly all the clergy were in the city occupied with the services of the day. At Poughkeepsie, other public Boards. In the audience, which filled the handsome edifice, were many of the leading ladies of that city. The exercises consisted of prayer by the Rev. Octavius Applegate, D. D., singing of patriotic songs by a quartette, reading of the Declaration, patriotic music by a large orchestra, and an oration by Colonel John R. Fellows, Ex-Mayor of Poughkeepsie. The gem of the occasion was District Attorney Fellows' oration. At Middleburgh, Schoharie County, there was an old-time celebration. The Declaration of Independence was read by George L. Danforth, son of ex-Judge P. S. Danforth. An oration was delivered by State Senator John J. Linson, of this city. At Jefferson County, the day was ushered in with cannon firing. During the day a series of athletic games and a display of fireworks in the evening. The celebration at Montgomery was in charge of the Fire Department. The day was celebrated by a balloon ascension and a display of fireworks in the evening. At Cairo there were trotting races, sack races, wheelbarrow races, a grained pig, grained pig, base ball games and day fireworks. At Walton, at Andes there were a National salute of 100 guns at sunrise, a firemen's race, tug of war, races of various kinds, and a parade of the Fire Department. A celebration was held on the grounds of the Baptist Church, Pine Plains. A hop was given in the evening at Hunter by Sons of Veterans. The members of the German Bar made an excursion to Poughkeepsie. A festival was held in the afternoon and evening. The circuit trotting races at Poughkeepsie attracted many people. Many people were carried up and down the Hudson River by the steamboats Jacob H. Tremper and M. Martin. There were trotting races at Cornwall. At Staatsburgh there was a parade, athletic sports and a base ball game between the New-Hamburgh and Staatsburgh clubs. At Copake Lake there were running races and a sack race. At Pleasant Valley, Dutchess County, exercises were held under the auspices of the members of the M. E. Church. An oration was delivered by the Rev. W. F. Hatfield, of Poughkeepsie.

Why Engineers

Conductors, baggage masters, brakemen and all who are constantly traveling upon railroads are more or less afflicted with kidney disease is from the fact that they are constantly being shaken by the jar of the fast running trains. It begins by pain across the small of the back extending down the inside of the leg to the knees, frequent desire to urinate dark and high-colored urine, stiff back, hate to bend over, pain when lying down, pain when standing, pain when sitting, in fact, pain, pain all the time, and unless relief is obtained Bright's Disease is sure to follow. Nothing will live upon the kidneys, regulate the urine, limber the back like the use of Brown's Sarsaparilla. Read what Conductor Anderson, of the Maine Central Railroad says: "I have used Brown's Sarsaparilla with marked effect." Road Master E. A. Smith, of the Boston & Maine system of railroads, says: "I have used Brown's Sarsaparilla for kidney troubles and can truly say it has done more for me than all the doctors I ever employed, and I have had occasion to require the services of the best physicians in the State. My wife has also been benefited by the use of
